Bulls Look to Build on Record-Breaking Campaign

Coming off a school-record 10-win season and second consecutive bowl-eligible season, the University at Buffalo football team may have a different look in 2019, but the goals will be the same. Buffalo is coming off a season in which it went 10-4, appeared in the MAC Championship Game and earned a berth in the Dollar General Bowl for the program's third bowl appearance in school history.

While the Bulls need to replace a number of offensive weapons, including their starting quarterback and three starting wide receivers, they do have the luxury of returning the majority of their offensive line and a pair of talented running backs.

UB will have a number of new starters on the defensive side of the ball as well. However, the Bulls were able to build important depth last season and reserve players gained valuable experience which should help with the transition.

Here is a position-by-position breakdown as the Bulls enter preseason camp.

QUARTERBACK

One of the biggest questions heading into the 2019 campaign will be who will replace Tyree Jackson as the Bulls' starting quarterback? Jackson was the 2018 MAC Offensive Player of the Year and declared for the NFL Draft following the 2018 season.

The returning quarterback with the most experience is Kyle Vantrease. The sophomore redshirted last season after gaining some playing time as a true freshman in 2017. Vantrease actually started one game in 2017. The Stow, OH native threw for 355 yards and two touchdowns on the season.

Dominic Johnson, a big-framed quarterback at 6-5, 225, saw some action as a sophomore last season and will also compete for the starting job. Johnson appeared in four games in 2018 and attempted two passes.

Also in the mix for the starting job will be redshirt-freshman Matt Myers. The local product was a standout in high school and was the 2017 Western New York Player of the Year.

RUNNING BACK

While there are question marks surrounding the quarterback position, that isn't the case at running back. The Bulls will return their top two backs from a season ago, including Mid-American Conference Freshman of the Year Jaret Patterson.

Patterson burst on to the scene as a true freshman in 2018. Though not breaking into the starting lineup until the ninth game of the season, the Maryland native still rushed for 1,013 yards and 14 touchdowns. He became the first freshman running back in school history to rush for 1,000 yards in a season. In addition, his 14 rushing touchdowns were two shy of the single-season school record.

Fellow back Kevin Marks wasn't far behind Patterson's numbers. As a redshirt-freshman, Marks rushed for 845 yards and 13 touchdowns on only three less carries. He scored a rushing touchdown in 10 different games in 2018. He rushed for a season-high 167 yards on only 18 carries at Central Michigan.

Theo Anderson will also factor in at the running back position. The junior from Florida has rushed for 488 yards and three touchdowns over his career.

Dylan McDuffie redshirted as a freshman last season and will add depth at running back as will Ron Cook, Jr. a freshman from Maryland.

PATTERSON

MARKS

WIDE RECEIVER

With the loss of All-MAC receivers Anthony Johnson and K.J. Osborn, Buffalo will need to replace its top two receivers from a season ago. The Bulls have some experienced receivers returning, but will likely need some young players to step up.

Entering his third season, Antonio Nunn is the most experienced receiver on the roster. He had 15 catches for 301 yards and a touchdown in 2017 and 12 catches for 146 yards and a touchdown last season.

Third-year receiver Tito Overton will also likely get more reps this season after continuing to develop.

LeMaro Smith and Jovany Ruiz will also add depth at the position as well as newcomer Jelani Foster who enrolled at UB in January.

Recruiting wide receivers was a clear focus for the coaching staff in the offseason - especially adding receivers with experience. The Bulls will have three new receivers from the junior college ranks on the squad in the fall, including Daniel Lee (Cisco College), Bernard Porter (Highland CC) and Carlton Todd (Iowa Central CC).

TIGHT END

Like wide receiver, the Bulls will need to replace an All-MAC player at tight end, with the departure of Tyler Mabry.

Junior Zac Lefebvre is an experienced tight end who saw a lot of time over his first two seasons. At 6-6, Lefebvre is a big target who has 15 catches and a touchdown over his career.

Sophomore Julien Bourassa has seen some game action and looks ready for a more prominent role in 2019. He played in three games and had one reception for nine yards before missing the remainder of the season with an injury in 2018.

Jake Molinich is listed as a tight end, but has been used primarily in blocking situations in the backfield. With a lot of youth at the position, he may see his role expanded this season.

After redshirting as a freshman last season, Cole Burniston will be in the mix at the tight end spot as well. At 6-6, freshman Tyler Stephens could also make an immediate impact.

OFFENSIVE LINE

The offensive line has been a strength of the Buffalo offense since Leipold's arrival and, with four of five starters returning, it looks like it will continue to be a strength in 2019.

Senior Evin Ksiezarczyk returns as the Bulls starting left tackle following the best season of his career. The 6-6, 315-pounder started all 14 games a season ago en route to earning All-MAC Second Team honors. 2019 will be Ksiezarczyk's third season as a starter after starter all 12 games in 2017 as well.

The Bulls will also return their starter at right tackle in Kayode Awosika. The junior started all 14 games in 2018 and was a key reserve in 2017.

Paul Nosworthy had a strong campaign in his first season starting at left guard. He started 13 games in 2018 and the senior will likely return to his starting role in 2019.

The Bulls have two solid options at right guard in senior Tomas Jack-Kurdyla and sophomore Jacob Gall. Jack-Kurdyla started 29 games at right guard over his career, more than any other player on the offensive line. Gall started the final five games at right guard last season.

Gall could also be in the mix to replace All-MAC center James O'Hagan. Gall along with redshirt-freshman Mike Novitsky are the top candidates to replace O'Hagan at center.

Trey Derouen, a graduate transfer from South Carolina in his second year with the program, saw action in five games last season and made one start at left guard.

Gabe Wallace, who redshirted last season as a freshman, has also shown promise.

Newcomers to the offensive line include Anthony Laudicina (enrolled in January), Dan Clifford (graduate transfer from Wagner), Bence Polgar, Alain Schaerer and Caelen Shepard.

DEFENSIVE LINE

While the Bulls will need to replace three starters on the defensive line, including All-MAC defensive end Chuck Harris, they do return a number of players that saw significant action in 2018.

Chibueze Onwuka started the first five games of the season and appeared in 12 on the year at defensive tackle. As a sophomore in 2018, Onwuka had 17 tackles and 1.5 sacks.

When Onwuka was forced out of the starting lineup with an injury, DeShondrick Foxworth stepped in and started four games at defensive tackle. The senior Mississippi native had 20 tackles and a sack last season.

Eddie Wilson had a strong finish to the 2018 season, starting the final three games at defensive tackle as a true freshman. Wilson appeared in all 14 games and had 17 tackles and a sack.

At defensive end, Malcolm Koonce and Taylor Riggins are ready to become regular starters for the Bulls after solid seasons as reserves in 2018. Koonce appeared in all 14 games and had 30 tackles and three sacks last season. Riggins also appeared in every game in 2018 and had 31 tackles and ranked second on the team with five sacks.

Ledarius Mack was a solid contributor at defensive end after originally playing linebacker. Used mostly in third-down pass-rush situations, Mack had 16 tackles and a pair of sacks in 2018.

Also adding depth to the defensive line rotation will be Ronald McGee and Tyrece Woods, Jr., who both enrolled in January, Jordan Avissey, C.J. Bazile, Georell Kidd and Kyler Laing.

LINEBACKERS

The Bulls will need to replace two starters at linebacker, including Khalil Hodge, arguably the best middle linebacker to ever play at UB.

James Patterson burst onto the scene as a true freshman in 2018. He started all 14 games at outside linebacker and ranked second on the team in tackles with 77 and added a team-high nine tackles for loss and four forced fumbles.

Matt Otwinowski is the likely successor to Hodge at middle linebacker after backing him up over the past three seasons. Otwinowski has played in 38 games at middle linebacker over his career and is coming off a season in which he had 31 tackles and two tackles for loss.

Kadofi Wright is a veteran reserve with good size who will likely challenge for the outside linebacker job. Last season, he appeared in all 14 games and totaled 27 tackles, 3.5 tackles for loss and 1.5 sacks.

Other players who will challenge for time at linebacker include junior Justin Mulbah, sophomore Tim Terry and sophomore Ja'Varius Harrison. All three have seen game action over their careers and continue to develop.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Joey Banks and Tyrone Hill split time at starting safety last season and with the graduation of Brandon Williams, both are likely to start in 2019. Banks started nine games last season and had 41 tackles, six pass breakups and an interception. Hill played in all 14 games, started five and finished with 46 tackles, four pass breakups and two fumble recoveries, including one for a touchdown.

Senior Dev Lamour and sophomore Dawun Hylton have game experience and will also be in the mix at safety.

After redshirting last season, Cory Gross will also add depth at the position. As will freshman safety Marcus Fuquas.

The Bulls will need to replace both starting cornerbacks, including All-MAC pick Cam Lewis.

Despite missing some time with an injury last season, when healthy, Aapri Washington was one of the best cornerbacks on the team. The sophomore started five games last season and had 21 tackles, two interceptions and three pass breakups.

Devon Russell played in the first four games of the season before missing the remainder of the season with an injury. At the time of his injury, he had four pass breakups and an interception. Now healthy, Russell is expected to be in the mix for the starting job.

Roy Baker has seen extensive action as a reserve over the last two seasons and will also be in the mix for a starting job. He has played in 20 games over the last two seasons.

Ali Abbas and Wankeith Akin, both in their third year with the program, also have game experience and will likely be in the cornerback rotation.

Also adding depth at cornerback will be Mark Davis, Trey Franklin and Larry Robbins.

SPECIAL TEAMS

With the graduation of Adam Mitcheson, the Bulls will have a new starting kicker for the first time since the 2015 campaign. Alex McNulty did see some game action last season, appearing in two games. He was 1-for-1 on field goal attempts, making a 21-yarder, and 3-for-4 on extra point attempts.

Joining the competition for starting kicker will be freshman Jackson Baltar.

Sophomore Evan Finegan had a strong debut season with the Bulls at punter in 2018. The Michigan native averaged 41.8 yards per punt to break the single-season school record.

HEAD COACH
LANCE LEIPOLD

FIFTH SEASON
23-27 at Buffalo • 132-33 Overall

Lance Leipold is in his fifth season as head coach of the Buffalo football team.

Leipold led the Bulls to a school-record 10-win campaign in 2018. The 10 wins, included a program-best 7-1 record in the Mid-American Conference, a MAC East Division title and the school's second trip to the MAC Championship game. Among the Bulls non-conference victories in 2018, included a 42-13 win at Rutgers, for the school's first-ever win over a Power 5 opponent. The Bulls earned an invitation to the 2018 Dollar General Bowl for just their third bowl game berth in program history.

Leipold was named the 2018 Mid-American Conference Coach of the Year as well as a semifinalist for the George Munger College Coach of the Year Award, presented yearly by the Maxwell Football Club.

Buffalo had the finest offensive campaign in school history in 2018. The Bulls scored 484 points, 64 touchdowns and rolled up 5,803 yards of total offense on the season - all school records. Quarterback Tyree Jackson was named the MAC Offensive Player of the Year - the first UB player to ever win the award. Running back Jaret Patterson was named the MAC Freshman of the Year after becoming the first freshman in school history to rush for 1,000 yards in a season. The Bulls had a school-record 10 players named to the All-MAC team, including six on the first team.

In 2017, he guided the Bulls to a 6-6 record and bowl eligibility for just the third time as an FBS program. The six wins were the fourth most in a season since the Bulls made the move to the FBS ranks in 1999.

The Bulls featured an explosive offense in 2017 that ranked second in the Mid-American Conference, averaging 432 yards per game and led the MAC with 291 passing yards per outing. UB's 5,183 yards of total offense were the third most in school history for a single season. The Bulls produced 20 plays of 45 yards or more and those 20 plays came from 10 different players.

Buffalo posted key wins against Conference USA Champion Florida Atlantic as well as a nine-win Ohio team. The Bulls finished the season with three straight wins for the first time as an FBS program. In addition, UB's six losses were by a total of 29 points, including two one-point losses and a three-point, seven-overtime loss.
In 2016, Leipold led a very young squad, featuring 42 new players. The Bulls were the fourth most inexperienced team in the nation. Buffalo earned impressive wins over Army (a bowl team) and Akron. Buffalo had four players named to the All-MAC team.

In 2015, his first with the Bulls, Leipold led UB to a 5-7 mark. He became the first UB head coach to win five games in his first season since Bob Deming went 6-3 in 1969.

Included in the Bulls five wins was a victory at Florida Atlantic - Buffalo's first non-conference road win since the 2009 season.The Bulls won three road games in 2015 - the most in UB's FBS era (since 1999).

The Bulls had five players named to the All-MAC football team in 2015, led by tight end Matt Weiser who was also named an Academic All-American – becoming the first UB football player in the modern era to earn the distinction.

Leipold was named the 25th head coach in the history of the Buffalo football program on December 1, 2014.

Leipold came to UB from Wisconsin-Whitewater where he compiled an astounding 109-6 record and won six Division III National Championships over his eight seasons. A six-time National Coach of the Year, Leipold reached 100 career victories faster than any other coach in NCAA history – at any level.

Leipold has gathered multiple honors from as many as five football-related organizations. He earned his sixth American Football Coaches Association Division III Coach of the Year award in 2014. He has won the award more times than any active coach at any level. He passed the late Joe Paterno, who was a five-time recipient of the award.

In his first season as head coach at Whitewater, The Warhawks went 14-1 and won the national title. He led the Warhawks back to the national championship game in 2008, but they lost to Mount Union, 31-26. Wisconsin-Whitewater went 15-0, winning the national championship in 2009, 2010 and 2011 and won 46 straight games over that span. Following a 7-3 season in 2012, UWW went a perfect 15-0 and won the national championship in 2013 and followed with another perfect 15-0 season and a national title in 2014.

Leipold was able to recruit top-notch talent to the campus in southeastern Wisconsin. During his tenure, running back Justin Beaver earned the Gagliardi Trophy as the top player in Division III. Brent Allen earned the Division III Rimington Award as the top center. Jeff Schebler was the first recipient of the Fred Mitchell Award, given to the top placekicker in Division II or III. Tailback Levell Coppage earned D3football.com Offensive Player of the Year accolades, and Cole Klotz was selected D3football.com Defensive Player of the Year. Defensive back Jared Kiesow was named an NCAA Elite 88 Award winner. The Warhawks have piled up 56 All-America honors under Leipold's tutelage.

A native of Jefferson, WI, Leipold began his coaching career at Wisconsin-Whitewater in 1987 as a quarterbacks coach and then wide receivers coach. He moved to the University of Wisconsin from 1991-93 as a graduate assistant and helped the Badgers to a Big Ten title and a Rose Bowl appearance in 1993.

As an assistant coach at Division II Nebraska-Omaha from 1994-2000, Leipold helped turn the Mavericks from a 1-10 team in 1994 into three-time North Central Conference champions during his tenure. After being promoted to offensive coordinator in 2000, he moved on to the University of Nebraska, where he served for three seasons under current Ohio head coach Frank Solich. He was on the same staff as former UB head coach Turner Gill. The Cornhuskers competed in the national championship game in 2001 and earned bowl bids in 2002 and 2003.

He returned to Nebraska-Omaha to serve as associate head coach and offensive coordinator from 2004-06. The Mavericks finished 8-3 and won the conference championship each of his three seasons.

Leipold is a 1987 graduate of Wisconsin-Whitewater where he was a standout quarterback for the Warhawks. He ranks second in school history in career pass attempts (647), fourth in yards (4,277), sixth in completions (303) and tied for 10th with 27 touchdowns. He was inducted into the Whitewater Hall of Fame as a player in 2003 and as a caoch in 2019. He was inducted into the Wisconsin Football Coaches Association Hall of Fame in 2018.

He is a member of the AFCA Ethics Committee.

Leipold and his wife, Kelly, have a daughter, Lindsey, and a son, Landon. His daugter, Lyndsey is plays volleyball at Stetson University.

Andy Kotelnicki

Offensive Coordinator/Running Backs
UW-River Falls '04
Fifth Season at Buffalo

Andy Kotelnicki is in fifth season as offensive coordinator. He also coaches the running backs after servings as quarterbacks coach his first two seasons.

Buffalo featured a record-breaking offense in 2018. The Bulls shattered the program record for single-season total offense, posting 5,803 yards on the year. UB scored 64 offensive touchdowns in 2018 which was also a school record.

Running back Jaret Patterson became the first freshman in school history to rush for 1,000 yards in a season, finishing with 1,013 yards en route to being named the MAC Freshman of the Year. Patterson scored 14 touchdowns and fellow running back Kevin Marks scored 13 touchdowns, marking the first time in school history two different players scored 13 or more touchdowns in the same season.

Quarterback Tyree Jackson was named the MAC Offensive Player of the Year - the first time in school history a Buffalo player won the award.

Buffalo's offense made significant progress under Kotelnicki in 2017. The Bulls ranked second in the Mid-American in total offense, averaging 432 yards per game. Due to injuries, Buffalo was forced to start three different quarterbacks throughout the season and the Bulls still led the MAC in passing offense, averaging 291 yards per game.

Other notable numbers from the 2017 season included ranking sixth in the nation in most improved scoring offense; sixth in the nation in most improved passing offense; eighth in the nation in turnovers lost; third in the MAC in points per possession; second in the MAC in fewest 3-and-outs; third in MAC in total offense and first in the MAC in third down conversion percentage.

In his first season coaching running backs, Kotelnicki helped with the development of sophomore Emmanuel Reed who rushed for 840 yards and nine touchdowns in his first season as a starter.

In 2016, the Bulls had three offensive players named All-MAC, including tight end Mason Schreck (2nd team), running back Jordan Johnson (3rd team) and center James O'Hagan (3rd team). Redshirt-freshman quarterback Tyree Jackson threw for 1,772 yards - the most ever by a UB freshman quarterback. Jackson also became the first freshman quarterback to throw for 300 yards in a game (he did it twice).

In 2015, the Bulls averaged 249.5 passing yards and 136.9 rushing yards per game. Also the quarterbacks coach, Kotelnicki oversaw a passing game that had 283 pass completions – the second most in school history for a single season. The Bulls' 23.6 completions per game were the most ever.

Kotelnicki came to UB from Wisconsin-Whitewater where he had spent the previous two seasons as offensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator.

At UWW, Kotelnicki led an offense that led the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WIAC) in scoring offense (40.1), rushing offense (218.2) and passing offense (269.5) in 2014 en route to a perfect 15-0 season and the programs' sixth Stagg Bowl national championship in eight seasons.

The Warhawks featured one of the most efficient offensive attacks in the nation under Kotelnicki's leadership in 2013. Whitewater led the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference and ranked among the top five in the nation in first downs (311), interceptions allowed (1) and turnover margin (+2.3).

The Warhawks' offense also led the conference in red zone offense, converting scores on 85.9 percent of drives inside the 20-yard line, and set single-season team records in passes completed (312) and passing touchdowns (42) in 2013.

Prior to Whitewater, Kotelnicki served as offensive coordinator at the University of Mary, an NCAA Division II institution in Bismarck, N.D., for two seasons. In his first year as coordinator, the Marauders scored over 10 points per game more than the previous season and led the Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference in scoring offense, total offense and passing efficiency. During his tenure, Kotelnicki mentored nine All-NSIC North Division honorees, the sixth 1,000-yard rusher in the school's history and an All-American wide receiver.

Kotelnicki spent six seasons as an assistant coach at UW-River Falls, including four as offensive coordinator, in 2003 and from 2006-10. The Falcons set 24 offensive school records during his second stint, and he was promoted to assistant head coach for the 2010 campaign.

Kotelnicki worked at Western Illinois University, where he coached tight ends, special teams and the offensive line, from 2004-06. He was also an assistant strength and conditioning coach from 2004-05 and the interim strength and conditioning coach in 2006.

After earning a bachelor's in exercise and sport science from UW-River Falls in 2004, Kotelnicki picked up a master's in kinesiology from Western Illinois in 2006. He is a member of the American Football Coaches Association and the Wisconsin Football Coaches Association.

Kotelnicki and his wife, Lindsey, have a son, Max, and daughter, Joy.

Brian Borland

Defensive Coordinator/Cornerbacks
Morningside (IA) '85
Fifth Season at Buffalo

Brian Borland is in his fifth season as defensive coordinator and also serves as cornerbacks coach.

Buffalo ranked third in the Mid-American Conference in total defense in 2018, allowing 355.4 yards per game - less than two yards per game behind first place.

Linebacker Khalil Hodge finished his three-year career with 421 tackles, the third most in school history. Hodge was named first-team All-MAC along with defensive end Chuck Harris. Cornerback Cam Lewis was named All-MAC Second Team.

Buffalo ranked second in the conference with 14 interceptions in 2018. It was the most by a UB team since 2013. Eight different players recorded interceptions on the year.

Borland led a unit that ranked fifth in the MAC in scoring defense (24.8) in 2017. Three UB defensive players were named All-MAC, including linebacker Khalil Hodge (first team) who ranked second in the nation in tackles with 154 – the most by a UB player in the Bulls' FBS era. Joining Hodge on the All-MAC team were defense ends Demone Harris (second team) and Chuck Harris (third team).

In 2016, Borland guided a defense that led the MAC and ranked 13th in the nation in pass defense, allowing 181.5 yards per game. Linebacker Khalil Hodge accumulated 123 tackles, the eighth most in school history for a single season, and was named All-MAC Second Team.

The Bulls were a very opportunistic defense in 2015. UB scored a school-record seven defensive touchdowns (by seven different players) to rank second in the nation.

Three members of his defense were named to the All-Mid-American Conference team in 2015. Linebacker Brandon Berry was named to the second team. Linebacker Okezie Alozie and cornerback Boise Ross were named to the third team. Ross broke the school record for passes defended in a season with 20 to rank fifth in the nation.

Borland came to UB from Wisconsin-Whitewater where he spent the previous 21 seasons. Since 2002, Borland served as the Warhawks defensive coordinator.

Borland began at UW-W in 1994, also serving as the defensive backs coach. He was announced as a 2015 Wisconsin Football Coaches Association Hall of Fame inductee.

Borland was named Division III Coordinator of the Year in 2013 by footballscoop.com after helping lead the Warhawks to the NCAA Division III national championship, the team's fifth in seven seasons. UW-Whitewater led the nation in scoring defense, allowing just 9.1 points per contest, and ranked No. 1 in the country in fumbles recovered (19) and turnovers forced (44).

From 2009-14, Borland's defenses led the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference and ranked among the top 20 in the nation in rushing defense, scoring defense and total defense. The Warhawks also led the league in pass efficiency from 2010-13.

Borland earned Wisconsin Collegiate Assistant Coach of the Year honors from the Wisconsin Football Coaches Association in both 2004 and 2006. In the 2009 season, Borland led the Warhawks to the fourth best scoring defense in Division III. In 2010, the Warhawks were ranked second in NCAA Division III in run defense. In 2011, Borland's rushing defense was ranked first in the WIAC.

From 1994-2002, Borland also coached track and field at UW-Whitewater. In 2000, he led the Whitewater women's track and field team to a fourth place finish at the NCAA Division III Outdoor Track and Field Championships. He earned NCAA D-III national coach of the year honors for his successful season.

Prior to Whitewater, Borland was the defensive coordinator for three years at Baker University (Kan.) from 1991-93, and at the University of Minnesota-Morris from 1989-90. He also was the head women's softball coach at Baker University and head track and field coach at the University of Minnesota-Morris. Borland's other stops include stints as a graduate assistant football coach at the University of Florida and at the University of Wisconsin. He also coached defensive backs at Arizona Western College.

Borland played his college football at Morningside (Iowa) College (1981-84) where he was a four-year letterwinner and three-year starter at defensive back, and a team captain.

In addition to his football coaching duties at UW-W, Borland taught in the HPRC Department.

He has a wife, Gayle, and two sons, Evan and Jaren.

Rob Ianello

Associated Head Coach/Wide Receivers
Catholic '87
Fifth Season at Buffalo

Rob Ianello is in his fifth season as associate head coach, recruiting coordinator and wide receivers coach.

For just the second time in program history, Buffalo had two wide receivers named to the All-Mid-American Conference team in the same season as Anthony Johnson was named to the first team and K.J. Osborn was named to the third team in 2018. Johnson became just the third player in school history with two 1,000-yard receiving seasons in a career with 1,011 yards in 2018. In his two seasons with the Bulls, Johnson had 25 touchdown catches, third in school history.

In 2017, Johnson who had one of the finest seasons in school history. The junior receiver led the Mid-American Conference in receiving yards with 1,356 and touchdowns with 14, which was also a school record. Johnson, a first-team All-MAC selection, ranked second in the nation in receiving yards per game (113.0) and third in receiving touchdowns (14).

Buffalo's receivers flourished under Ianello in 2015. For the first time as an FBS program (since 1999) the Bulls had three players with 50 or more catches in a season. Matt Weiser had 63; Ron Willoughby had 61 and Marcus McGill had 50.

Ianello brought over 25 years of experience to UB and is recognized as one of the best recruiters in college football. He most recently spent three seasons on the Kansas football staff where he was the recruiting coordinator and wide receivers coach.

Ianello was instrumental in helping bring the 25th-rated signing class to Kansas in 2013 according to The Sporting News. The Jayhawk class had two four-star prospects, including the top-rated JUCO prospect in the nation in defensive lineman Marquel Combs.

No stranger to the Mid-American Conference, Ianello served as head coach at Akron for the 2010 and 2011 seasons. Prior to his stint at Akron, Ianello was a member of the coaching staff at Notre Dame from 2005-09. He coached the Irish in the 2008 Hawai'i Bowl, 2007 Sugar Bowl and 2006 Fiesta Bowl.

From 2005-08 at Notre Dame, he served as wide receivers coach and coordinated the recruiting efforts of the Irish. In January 2009, he was promoted to assistant head coach for offense. In that role, he led offensive staff meetings when head coach Charlie Weis was not present, and later served as the team's interim head coach.

Notre Dame's 2009 offense ranked sixth nationally in passing offense (323.50 ypg) and ninth in total offense (451.75 ypg). Ianello mentored Irish wide receiver Golden Tate, who was the 2009 Biletnikoff Award winner and a consensus All-American. Additionally, he coached Jeff Samardzija, who was a Biletnikoff Award finalist in 2005 and 2006 and earned All-America honors in 2006.

As the recruiting coordinator for the Irish, he directed three consecutive top-10 recruiting classes from 2006-08, something only three other schools (USC, Florida and Georgia) could claim. Additionally, Ianello is the only coach named one of the 25-best recruiters nationally from 2005-09 by Rivals.com. In the book "The Second Season" by recruiting analyst Tom Lemming, Ianello is name done of the top-10 recruiters of the last 30 years.

Ianello had two coaching stints at Wisconsin (1990-93, 2003-04), and was part of a staff that helped lead the Badgers to the 1994 Rose Bowl, the 2003 Music City Bowl and the 2005 Outback Bowl.

From 1994-2002, Ianello was on staff at Arizona, serving as recruiting coordinator from 1994-96, and wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator from 1997-2002. The Wildcats played in two bowl games, the 1997 Insight.com Bowl and the 1998 Holiday Bowl. The 1998 Arizona team finished 12-1, which stands as the best record in school history.

Ianello served on the board of trustees of the American Football Coaches Association in from 2003 to 2009. The board formulates policy and provides direction for the AFCA. He also has served as the chair of the AFCA's assistant coaches' committee and the general chairman of the AFCA's all-division assistant coaches' committee. He also served on the AFCA ethics committee in 2010 and 2011.

Born Nov. 4, 1965, Ianello is a native of Port Chester, N.Y., and is a 1987 graduate of The Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C., owning a bachelor's degree in English.

Ianello and his wife, the former Denise Dove, have one son, Zachary, and two daughters, Ashley and Courtney. Denise played collegiate basketball at Northern Illinois and is a former assistant women's basketball coach at Arizona and Wisconsin. She has also worked as a scout in the WNBA.

Alan Hensell

Tight Ends
Franklin '05
Fifth Season at Buffalo

Alan Hensell is in his fifth season as tight ends coach. In three of his four seasons at Buffalo, the Bulls have produced an All-MAC tight end.

Tyler Mabry was named All-MAC First Team in 2018 after leading all MAC tight ends with 27 catches for 230 yards and two touchdowns. Sophomore Zac Lefebvre had 10 catches for 84 yards.

Hensell developed young tight ends in 2017 led by sophomore Tyler Mabry who had 24 receptions for 242 yards and a touchdown. Redshirt-freshman Zac Lefebvre had five catches for 51 yards and a touchdown before an injury ended his season.

In 2016, Mason Schreck was a second-team All-MAC selection after leading the Bulls with 59 catches for 651 yards. His receiving yard total was the most in school history by a tight end. Schreck was selected by the Cincinnati Bengals in the seventh round of the 2017 NFL Draft - becoming the first UB tight end ever drafted.

In 2015, Hensell coached Matt Weiser who had arguably the best season by a tight end in school history. Weiser set the school record for receptions by a tight end with 63 en route to earning All-MAC First Team honors. He was the first tight end in school history to earn first-team All-MAC honors. Weiser also became the first player in UB's FBS era to be named an Academic All-American.

Hensell came to UB after spending the previous two seasons with the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater football team as its wide receivers coach.

In 2014 as wide receivers coach at UWW, Hensell helped lead the Warhawks to the top passing offense ranking in the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WIAC). Four of his wide receivers earn All-WIAC honors, including two that were named to the first team. Jake Kumerow was named the Division III Player of the Year.

The Warhawks went a perfect 15-0 in 2014 and won the Stagg Bowl for the sixth time in eight years.

In 2013, two wide receivers earned All-WIAC accolades, including first team honoree Kumerow. A second team All-West Region selection by d3football.com, Kumerow set school records for receiving yards (1,331) and receiving touchdowns (19) in one season. The team's strong receiving corps helped the Warhawks post a 15-0 record and a national championship.

Hensell came to UWW from D1-AA (FCS) member Gardner-Webb (N.C.) University, where he was the offensive line coach. During the 2012 season, he helped produce three All-Big South Conference selections, including left guard Jamie Dunaway, who received third team All–America honors. A total of four players have garnered All–America honors while being tutored by Hensell.

A New Carlisle, IN, native, Hensell spent time at the University of Connecticut as an offensive quality control coach in February 2012 before joining the Gardner-Webb staff.

Hensell spent the previous five seasons in the Southeastern Conference, including the 2011 season as assistant offensive line coach and offensive graduate assistant at Ole Miss. He worked with the Rebels' offensive line and tight ends in 2011, helping mentor right tackle Bobby Massie, who was drafted in the fourth round of the 2012 NFL Draft by the Arizona Cardinals.

In 2010, Hensell served as assistant offensive line coach and offensive intern at the University of Tennessee, where he had the opportunity to coach center James Stone, who earned freshman All-America honors for the Vols. Tennessee was selected to play in the Music City Bowl following the regular season.

Hensell worked his first stint at Ole Miss from 2007-09, working as assistant offensive line coach in 2008 and 2009. The Rebels were 9-4 in each of those seasons, finishing the seasons with AP ranks of Nos. 14 and 20, respectively, and won a pair of Cotton Bowls. In 2008, Ole Miss averaged 407.6 yards of total offense per game and 186.5 yards per game on the ground. Left tackle Michael Oher earned first-team All-America honors and was taken in the first round of the NFL Draft by the Baltimore Ravens. In 2009, the Rebels averaged 402.4 yards per game of total offense, including 183.6 on the ground. Standout offensive lineman John Jerry earned first-team All-America honors that season and was picked in the third round of the NFL Draft by the Miami Dolphins.

Hensell began his college coaching career at his alma mater, coaching outside linebackers at Franklin (IN) College in 2004. Hensell also served as a student assistant baseball coach during his time at Franklin, helping the team to a 29-15 record, a Heartland Conference championship and a No. 24 national ranking in 2005.

Following his time on staff at Franklin, Hensell moved on to coach quarterbacks at UW-River Falls in 2005 and 2006. He helped tutor Jeremy Wolff, one of only three signal callers in Division III selected to play in the Aztec Bowl, to All-WIAC honors in 2006.

Hensell started his career in coaching in 2003 at Decatur Central (Ind.) High, coaching quarterbacks following a career-ending injury on the college gridiron.

As a student-athlete, Hensell played two sports at Franklin as a freshman, lining up at running back and receiver, and pitching for the Grizzlies' baseball team. He helped the baseball squad to a 32-10 record, a Heartland Conference title and a No. 30 national ranking as a freshman in 2002. He came to Franklin from New Prairie (Ind.) High School, where he was a three-sport standout in football, basketball and baseball, earning 10 letters throughout his prep career.

Hensell graduated from Franklin in 2005 with a B.A. in physical education (K-12) and a minor in health education. He earned a master's degree in science and education from Wisconsin-Whitewater in 2015.

Chris Simpson

Linebackers
Wisconsin-Whitewater '98
Fifth Season at Buffalo

Chris Simpson is in his fifth season as linebackers coach.

Working with the linebackers, Simpson helped develop Khalil Hodge, arguably the best middle linebacker to ever play at Buffalo. In only three seasons, Hodge recorded 421 tackles, the third-highest total in school history.

In 2018, three of the team's four leading tacklers were linebackers, including Hodge (144), James Patterson (77) and Jordan Collier (56).

In 2017, Hodge had arguably the finest season by a linebacker in school history. The junior middle linebacker had an FBS-era record 154 tackles on the year to lead the Mid-American Conference and rank second in the nation. Hodge was named All-MAC First Team for his efforts.

In 2016, for the second straight season, Simpson's linebackers were the top three leading tacklers on the team. Hodge had a huge season for the Bulls, finishing with 123 tackles, the eighth most in school history for a single season and the second most in UB's FBS era. Hodge was named All-MAC Second Team.

Simpson made an immediate impact with the Bulls as the linebackers were arguably the strongest unit of the Bulls defense in 2015. The top three tacklers on the team were linebackers and for the first time since 2008, the Bulls had two different players with over 100 tackles as Nick Gilbo finished with 113 and Brandon Berry had 104. Berry was named All-MAC Second Team and Okezie Alozie was named third-team All-MAC.

Simpson came to UB after spending 2014 as the outside linebackers coach at MAC-foe Eastern Michigan.

Prior to coaching at EMU, Simpson spent the previous four seasons as linebackers coach at Grand Valley State. During his time in Allendale, Mich., the team posted a 39-11 record and four Division II playoff victories. He also tutored six All-Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) performers during that span.

Grand Valley closed the 2013 football campaign ranked third in the final American Football Coaches Association poll. The Lakers advanced to the NCAA DII National Semifinals for the eighth time after knocking off undefeated and No. 3 ranked Colorado State University-Pueblo.

Senior linebacker Jordan Kaufman received second team All-GLIAC honors after leading the squad in tackles with 87, while also recording eight tackles for loss, a fumble recovery and returning a blocked field goal 56 yards for a score. Also earning honorable mention league honors for GVSU were senior linebackers Charles Hill and Luther Ware.

His 2011 linebacking unit was a key component in a Laker defense that ended the year among the GLIAC leaders. GVSU led the league in tackles for loss (93) and sacks (36), while ranking second in scoring defense (20.2). GVSU limited opponents to 15.5 points per game in its last five games that season.

Simpson's linebacking unit helped the Laker defense rank nationally in several categories, including the top 20 in tackles for loss and quarterback sacks in 2010. Ware and Justin Victor earned All-GLIAC accolades during the 2010 campaign.

He arrived at GVSU following a two-year stint at the University of Nebraska-Omaha under current EMU defensive coordinator Brad McCaslin. The Mavericks were 14-9 with one appearance in the NCAA DII playoffs during his time on the staff.

Simpson spent five years at Division III national power Wisconsin-Whitewater where he was an assistant coach in charge of the linebackers. UWW was 42-3 his final three seasons with three-straight NCAA DIII National Championship game appearances and three Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference crowns. The Warhawks claimed the 2007 National Championship and turned in an overall mark of 56-9 during his five years on the staff.

In addition, Simpson coached two years (1999-2000) at Waunakee (Wis.) High School, one year (2001) at Loras College in Dubuque, Iowa, as a graduate assistant and one year (2002) at Wisconsin-Platteville. In the summer of 2006, Simpson was selected as a participant at the NCAA Men's Football Coaches Academy.

He also has received an NFL Minority Coaching Internship on six occasions, from the Green Bay Packers for defensive line and special teams in the summer of 2006, in 2007 with the Dallas Cowboys, in 2008 with the Carolina Panthers, in 2009 with the Minnesota Vikings and Cleveland Browns and in 2013 with the Detroit Lions.

Simpson graduated with a bachelor's degree from Wisconsin-Whitewater in physical education in 1998. He earned his master's in curriculum and instruction in 2004.

Taiwo Onatolu

Defensive Ends/Special Teams Coordinator
Nebraska-Omaha '06
Fourth Season at Buffalo

Taiwo Onatolu will coach the defensive ends beginning in 2019 after serving as cornerbacks coach over the previous four seasons. He began his career at UB as director of player personnel. He also coaches the specialists.

Buffalo ranked fifth in the Mid-American Conference in pass defense in 2018, allowing 194 yards passing per game. The Bulls recorded 14 interceptions, eight of which came from cornerbacks. Cameron Lewis was named All-MAC Second Team after posting three interceptions and six pass breakups on the year.

The Bulls ranked fifth in the Mid-American Conference in pass defense in 2017, allowing 205 yards per game and added eight interceptions.

In 2016, UB's defense led the MAC and ranked 13th in the nation in pass defense - allowing 181.5 yards per game.

Onatolu came to UB from Missouri State where he spent the previous five seasons at inside linebackers coach. He is a native of Papillion, NE, and spent the 2007 to 2010 seasons as an assistant at the University of Nebraska-Omaha.

He was also a standout linebacker at UNO, starting four seasons for the Mavericks, earning All-NCC first-team honors three times and All-America first-team honors in 2004. He was the North Central Conference's most valuable linebacker in 2004 after posting 98 tackles and 5 interceptions. He was in on 71 tackles as a senior, helping him earn All-America second and third-team honors by different agencies.

Onatolu finished his four-year stint at UNO as the program's No. 2 all-time tackler with 371 total stops. He also tallied 46.5 tackles for loss, 12.5 sacks, 7 interceptions and 182 solo tackles in 44 games. He helped the Mavericks to a pair of NCC titles and a 2005 playoff appearance.

After completing his degree in Communication, Public Affairs & Community Service from UNO in 2006, Onatolu stayed at UNO for two years as a graduate assistant coach, working with the squad's linebackers. He coached All-American safety Randy Kush in 2007, the school's all-time leader in interceptions. He moved to full-time status in March 2010 and helped UNO to a combined 29-16 ledger during his four years on staff, including NCAA Division II playoff appearances in 2007, 2008 and 2009.

In his first season at Missouri State in 2011, he had the best of both worlds with a gritty and determined senior in David Ingram at one inside linebacker spot and a redshirt freshman in Andrew Beisel at the other. Beisel went on to record a team-high 84 tackles, becoming the first MSU freshman since 1998 to lead the club in total stops and earned MVFC All-Newcomer Team distinction. Ingram, who started all 11 games, tallied 77 tackles and finished third on the squad.

In 2012, Onatolu used five different starters in his rotation, including Beisel who led all middle linebackers with 73 stops in 10 games, while redshirt freshman Christian Hoffmann brought down 41 ball carriers with 5 starts in an impressive debut campaign.

It was Beisel and Hoffmann who led Onatolu's inside backers again in 2013. Beisel tallied 96 stops while starting all 12 games and earning All-MVFC honorable mention honors his junior campaign, while Hoffmann earned 9 starts his sophomore season with 36 total stops. The tandem helped Missouri State rank among the national leaders in red zone defense, rushing defense, scoring defense and passing defense, while ranking as one of the top defensive units in the MVFC.

Onatolu's twin brother, Kenny, has enjoyed a professional career that began with the Edmonton Eskimos in the Canadian Football League and included stints with the Minnesota Vikings and Carolina Panthers. He was also an All-NCC linebacker.

Onatolu and his wife, Jennifer, have a son, Isaiah.

Jim Zebrowksi

Quarterbacks/Co-Offensive Coordinator
Mount Union '91
Third Season at Buffalo

Jim Zebrowksi, a coaching veteran in the Big Ten and the Mid-American Conference, begins his third season as quarterbacks. He also serves as the co-offensive coordinator. Zebrowksi brought 25 years of coaching experience to Buffalo, including five successful seasons at Minnesota.

Quarterbacks have flourished under the watchful eye of Zebrowski. In 2018, Tyree Jackson became the first player in school history to be named Mid-American Conference Offensive Player of the Year and the first quarterback in school history to be named All-MAC. He threw for 3,131 yards and 28 touchdowns in 2018 - both were second in school history for a single season.

Zebrowski made an immediate impact in his first season with the Bulls in 2017. Despite, an injury-riddled season that saw the Bulls have to start three different quarterbacks, Buffalo still led the MAC and set a school record with 3,490 passing yards on the year. Tyree Jackson threw for 2,096 yards and 14 touchdowns in eight games on the season, including three 300+ yard games. Backup Drew Anderson started against Western Michigan and threw for a school- and conference-record 597 yards and seven touchdowns.

Zebrowski was the quarterbacks coach at Minnesota from 2011-15 and helped lead the Gophers to three straight bowl games. He is well known for developing young quarterbacks. Minnesota signal-caller Mitch Leidner advanced from running the scout team to accounting for 2,250 yards and 21 touchdowns in 2014. Leidner had 10 rushing touchdowns, tying the school record for a quarterback.

He helped lead the Gophers to the Meineke Car Care Bowl in 2012, the Texas Bowl in 2013 and the Citrus Bowl in 2014. He likely would have stayed at Minnesota. However, head coach Jerry Kill stepped down for health reasons in 2015, resulting in changes to the coaching staff.

Prior to coaching at Minnesota, Zebrowksi was the quarterbacks coach at Northern Illinois in 2010. He tutored All-MAC quarterback Chandler Harnish, an NFL draft pick of the Indianapolis Colts. He also laid the foundation for Harnish's backup Jordan Lynch who was an All-American and a Heisman Trophy finalist in 2013. Featuring a high-powered offense that averaged over 35 points per game, Zebrowski helped lead the Huskies to the 2010 MAC Championship game and a win over Fresno State in the Humanitarian Bowl.

This is the second time Zebrowski will serve under Leipold. He was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Wisconsin-Whitewater from 2007-09. Over his tenure, the Warhawks went 42-3 and advanced to the Division III title game every year, winning it twice. Zebrowksi was named the Wisconsin Football Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year and the FootballScoop.com Division III Coordinator of the Year in 2009.

In 2004, he became the head coach at Lakeland University and led the Muskies to a 28-12 record over four seasons. He led Lakeland to a pair of Illini-Badger Conference championships and advanced to the Division III playoffs for the first time in school history.

Zebrowski and his wife, Heather, who was named Female Athlete of the Year during her volleyball playing days at Southern Illinois, have two children, Zachary and Lauryn.

Brad McCaslin

Defensive Tackles
Hastings '05
Third Season at Buffalo

Brad McCaslin, who spent two seasons on the University at Buffalo football staff, has returned to the UB program to serve as defensive tackles coach beginning in 2019. McCaslin previous served as a defensive analyst as well as a defensive assistant and director of player personnel for the Bulls during the 2016 and 2017 campaigns.

McCaslin has over 20 years of coaching experience, including serving as defensive coordinator at Eastern Michigan in 2014 and 2015. Leipold and McCaslin worked together at Nebraska-Omaha from 1997-2000 and from 2004-06. A proven winner, McCaslin has been part of seven conference championships during his coaching career along with 15 winning seasons.

Prior to Eastern Michigan, McCaslin spent two years at Drake University where he served as the team's defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach. He helped turn the Bulldogs into one of the top defenses in the Pioneer Football League.

In 2012, the Bulldogs ranked second in the PFL in total defense by surrendering just 329 yards per game and two Bulldogs, including PFL Defensive Player of the Year Tyler Moorehead, ranked in the top 10 in the league in sacks. Additionally, nine Drake defenders were named to all-PFL teams.

McCaslin came to Drake from the University of Nebraska-Omaha, where he coached for 14 seasons, including the last six as the Mavericks' defensive coordinator (2005-10). He also served as associate head coach his final four seasons before the program was disbanded in 2010.

As defensive coordinator at UNO, McCaslin oversaw a dramatic improvement across the entire unit. The 2007 Mavericks ranked first in the North Central Conference in scoring defense (16.8), turnover margin (+14) and rush defense (97.2). Their red zone defense also improved from worst to first in the NCC from 2006 to 2007. UNO players collected all three NCC defensive MVP awards in 2007.

McCaslin began his tenure at Nebraska-Omaha as a graduate student assistant coach for three seasons (1997-99) before becoming a full-time assistant in 2000, in charge of the defensive line. McCaslin's units were quickly among the strongest in the conference. Among his star pupils was All-American Chris Cooper, a sixth-round draft pick who has spent nine seasons in the National Football League. He also coached Buck Rasmussen, who earned a Super Bowl ring in 2005 with the New England Patriots, and Kenny Onatolu, who played with the Edmonton Eskimos of the Canadian Football League before being signed by the Minnesota Vikings prior to the 2009 season.

Most recently, McCaslin served as head coach at Benedictine University, a Division III program in Illinois.

A native of Cheyenne, Wyo., McCaslin was a stand-out wide receiver at Hastings College from 1990-1994. While there he set the school record for most receptions in a game. After graduating he taught and coached at Benson High School in Omaha, Neb., for two years before becoming a graduate assistant at UNO.

Scott Fuchs

Offensive Line
North Dakota State '95
First Season at Buffalo

Scott Fuchs, a 25-year veteran of college coaching, enters his first season as offensive line coach at the University at Buffalo. Fuchs came to Buffalo after spending the previous five seasons as offensive line coach at Wyoming. Head Coach Lance Leipold and Fuchs also worked on the same staff at Nebraska-Omaha from 2004-06.

While at Wyoming, Fuchs' coaching highlights included developing All-American center Chase Roullier who went on to start for the Washington Redskins, designing a blocking scheme for running back Brian Hall who rushed for a school-record 4,287 over his career and helping coach an offense that ranked second in the nation in redzone offense in 2017. In 2016, Fuchs helped coach the 2016 Cowboy offense that averaged 35.9 points per game to rank No. 2 in the Mountain West and No. 25 in the nation.

An outstanding offensive lineman himself, Fuchs was named to the 1993 Kodak/American Football Coaches Association first-team All-America squad as a senior offensive guard at North Dakota State. NDSU won three consecutive North Central Conference rushing titles during his three years as a starter. He was part of three North Central Conference Championship teams at NDSU in 1990, '91 and '92. The 1990 Bison captured the NCAA Division II National Championship.

Fuchs coached the offensive line at North Dakota State, his alma mater, from 2009-13 before being hire at Wyoming. He helped lead the Bison to an astounding 43-2 record and three national titles between 2011 and 2013. In 2012 and 2013, Fuchs coached Consensus First Team All-America offensive tackle Billy Turner. Turner was selected in the third round of the 2014 NFL Draft by the Miami Dolphins. All total, Fuchs has coached nine All-Americans and 32 All-Conference performers during his career.

Prior to returning to his alma mater, Fuchs coached one season at Southern Illinois in 2008. That team tied for the conference title and advanced to the first round of the FCS Playoffs. He also coached at Grand Valley State (2007), Nebraska-Omaha (2003-06), Minnesota-Crookston (2000-02), Wisconsin-Eau Claire (1999) and Valley City State (1997-98). The only school he did not coach the offensive line was his one season at Wisconsin-Eau Claire when he coached the defensive line.

Fuchs earned his bachelor of science degree from North Dakota State in physical education and social science education in 1995 and his master of education degree with a specialization in physical education and athletic administration in 1997.

Scott and his wife, Emily, have three boys, Hank, Jack and Gus.

Jeff Burrow

Safeties
Cincinnati '99
Second Season at Buffalo

Jeff Burrow enters his first season as safeties coach after spending last season as the Bulls' director of player personnel.

Prior to arriving at UB in 2018, Burrow served as Kent State's safeties coach from 2011-17 and was promoted to co-defensive coordinator in 2017. He was part of the Golden Flashes' 2012 MAC East title run and the program's first bowl appearance in 40 years. In each of Burrow's first five seasons, a Kent State safety earned All-MAC honors, including two-time first-team All-MAC pick Nate Holley.

In his time at Kent State, he coached a number of Academic All-MAC players, including Jordan Italiano who became the first football player in Kent State's history to be a three-time Academic All-American. In 2015, he was the nation's only position coach to have two Academic All-Americans.

Prior to Kent State, Burrow spent one season as the secondary coach at Indiana State after spending the previous season as the assistant secondary coach at Marshall. From 2007-08, Burrow was the wide receiver's coach at Jacksonville State.

Burrow was the defensive graduate assistant at Notre Dame in 2005-06. He also served as the defensive graduate assistant at Minnesota in 2003 and 2004.

Burrow was a four-year starter at cornerback at the University of Cincinnati from 1995-99. Following his collegiate career, he signed with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League and played one season with the team.

The Sylvester, GA native earned his bachelor's degree in criminal justice from Cincinnati in 1999 and a master's degree in education from Minnesota in 2004.

He and his wife, Janea, have three daughters, Jazmyne, Jaelyn and Jayda.

BUFFALO 48, DELAWARE STATE 10

SEPT. 1, 2018 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

BUFFALO, NY -- Tyree Jackson tossed a career-high six touchdowns passes in just over two quarters of work to lead the University at Buffalo football team to a 48-10 win over Delaware State in the season opener at UB Stadium on Saturday night.

Jackson threw for 189 yards and six touchdowns before he was pulled early in the third quarter. The junior quarterback was responsible for the Bulls' first six touchdowns, finding four different receivers for scores.

Jackson's first touchdown pass was a nine-yard toss to newcomer George Rushing, who was playing in his first game with the Bulls after joining the program from Wisconsin. On the Bulls' next possession, Jackson found a familiar target in Anthony Johnson for a 27-yard touchdown to give the Bulls a 13-0 lead.

Devon Russell notched his first career interception on Delaware State's ensuing possession to set UB up in Hornets' territory. Buffalo capitalized when Jackson hit K.J. Osborn in stride for a 32-yard strike to extend the UB lead to 20-0 with 3:17 left in the first quarter.

Rushing struck again early in the second quarter with a one-yard touchdown catch from Jackson to give the Bulls a 27-0 lead. Osborn followed with his second touchdown grab of the night when he took a quick slant from Jackson and sprinted 19 yards to pay dirt.

Jackson's final touchdown pass was an 11-yard connection with redshirt-freshman Charlie Jones with 9:25 left in the third quarter. It was Jones' first career touchdown catch.

The Bulls' final score of the game came from freshman running back Jaret Patterson who ripped of a 16-yard with 5:21 left in the third quarter for his first career touchdown.

As well as the offense played, it was the play of the defense that put the team in a position to succeed. The Bulls forced four turnovers in the game, three of which were turned into touchdowns. After Russell's interception led to a touchdown, the Bulls quickly got the ball back when Ledarius Mack had a strip sack that was recovered by Chuck Harris. Later, Jordan Collier recovered a fumble that led to another touchdown.

With the Bulls able to quickly build a large lead, it afforded the coaching staff the opportunity to play a number of different players. In fact, 52 different players saw action in the game.

10 different players caught a pass on the night, led by Johnson who had four receptions for 57 yards and a score. Osborn had three catches for 54 yards and two TDs.

Johnathan Hawkins was the Bulls' leading rusher with 37 yards on eight carries. Patterson finished with 34 yards on nine carries and Emmanuel Reed had 32 yards on eight carries.

Matt Otwinowski had a career-high 10 tackles to lead the defense. Khalil Hodge had eight stops.

However, the night belonged to Jackson. The junior signal-caller became the first quarterback in school history to throw five first-half touchdowns and his six touchdown passes tied for the second in program history for a single game.

BUFFALO 36, TEMPLE 29

SEPT. 8, 2018 • LINCOLN FINANCIAL FIELD• PHILADELPHIA, PA

PHILADELPHIA, PA – Anthony Johnson took a pass over the middle from Tyree Jackson, fought through defenders and willed his way into the endzone for a 29-yard touchdown with 59 seconds left to lift the University at Buffalo football team to a 36-29 win over Temple at Lincoln Financial Field on Saturday.

A resilient Buffalo team, now 2-0 on the season, had an answer for every Temple threat. With the Bulls leading by eight, Temple was able to score and get the two-point conversion to tie the game, 22-22, early in the fourth quarter.

The Bulls immediately responded by driving 58 yards on eight plays and Jackson's 5-yard touchdown pass to Antonio Nunn put UB back on top, 29-22, with 7:43 left in the game. Temple answered right back with a 75-yard drive of its own to again tie the game at 29 with 4:53 remaining.

The Bulls' game-winning drive was a thing of beauty. Buffalo surgically sliced through the Temple defense and drove 81 yards on 10 plays for the final score. On three separate occasions, the Bulls were able to convert third-and-longs to keep the drive alive. Even the game-winning touchdown was on a third down and 10.

The Bulls sealed the win when, on the Owls' final drive, Chuck Harris sacked Temple quarterback Frank Nutile and forced a fumble that Chibueze Onwuka was able to recover.

Jackson threw for 275 yards and three touchdowns in the game. Once again, he spread the ball around with touchdown passes to Nunn, Johnson and Charlie Jones.

Redshirt-freshman running back Kevin Marks had a breakout performance for the Bulls. Playing in just the second game of his career, Marks rushed for 138 yards and two touchdowns on 25 carries.

Cameron Lewis, who was wearing no. 41 in the game to honor the late Solomon Jackson, had two interceptions in the game. He became the first UB player to record two interception in a game since Okezie Alozie had two against Ohio in 2015.

The Bulls seemed in total control for much of the first half, leading 12-0, after a 33-yard TD pass from Jackson to Jones and a 22-yard touchdown run by Marks. However, Temple converted on a 39-yard Hail Mary pass, on the final play of the first half, to cut the Buffalo lead to 12-7 at the break. The Owls also scored on their first drive of the third quarter to take a 14-12 lead.

Sparked by Lewis' second interception of the game, the Bulls took a 19-14 lead on a one-yard touchdown plunge by Marks.

Buffalo extended its lead to 22-14 on a 46-yard field goal by Adam Mitcheson, late in the third quarter.

Johnson finished with six catches for 76 yards and the game-winning touchdown. The senior's performance was even more remarkable considering he was playing with a heavy heart. Just hours before to the game, Johnson learned his best friend, De'Mon Davis, was gunned down. There was question as to whether Johnson would be able to play, but he stepped up and not only played, but made one of the biggest plays of his career.

The Bulls are 2-0 for the first time since the 1983 season.

BUFFALO 35, EASTERN MICHIGAN 28

SEPT. 15, 2018 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

BUFFALO, NY – Fans of Mid-American Conference football are familiar with the term MACtion. University at Buffalo football fans were introduced to the term first hand in an exciting 35-28 win over Eastern Michigan at UB Stadium on Saturday night. The Bulls beat a 2-0 Eastern Michigan team to improve to 3-0 on the season for the first time since 1983.

Quarterback Tyree Jackson had arguably the best game of his career, going 21-of-26 for 325 yard s and three touchdowns. His favorite target was K.J. Osborn who had seven receptions for 188 yards and three scores. Two of Osborn's three touchdowns were 70 yards or longer.

The Bulls jumped out to a 14-0 lead, scoring touchdowns on each of their first two drives. Following a 45-yard completion from Jackson the Anthony Johnson, Kevin Marks punched it in from 1-yard out to put the Bulls on the board. Osborn's first touchdown was an 8-yarder that extended the UB lead to 14-0.

The real fireworks started in the second quarter with three consecutive big plays by both teams. Eastern Michigan scored on a 76-yard touchdown pass to cut the UB lead to 14-7. The Bulls quickly responded on their first play of their ensuing possession when Jackson connected with a streaking Osborn for a 70-yard touchdown to extend the UB lead to 21-7. However, the Eagles answered right back with a 75-yard touchdown pass on the first play of their next possession to cut the UB lead to 21-14.

Marks scored his second rushing touchdown of the game, with 2:03 left in the second quarter, to extend the Bulls' lead to 28-14. Eastern Michigan scored on the final play of the first half to cut the UB lead to 28-21.

The signature play of the game came early in the third quarter when Jackson rolled to his right and hit Osborn in stride along the sideline. The junior receiver did the rest as he was able to outrace the defense for a 75-yard touchdown to give the Bulls a 35-21 lead.

"It's a pretty exciting group in there right now and I think they're proud of what they've been able to get done so far," head coach Lance Leipold said. "I don't know if it's looking at the 3-0 part or it's looking at 1-0 in the league which is a great start. I think they're just excited to get a win against a good football team and keep battling through this."

Osborn's 188 receiving yards were the fourth most in school history for a single game. It was Jackson's sixth career 300-yard passing game and his third highest single-game total in his career. It was the third straight game the junior signal-caller had 3+ touchdown passes in a game and he now has 12 touchdown passes on the season, matching his total from all of last season.

The Bulls' defense had eight tackles for loss and six sacks in the game. Leading the way was Chuck Harris. The senior defensive end, wearing number 41 in the game in honor of the late Solomon Jackson, finished with eight tackles, 2.5 sacks and a forced fumble. Khalil Hodge had a game-high 14 tackles for the Bulls.

The Bulls will take their 3-0 record to New Jersey next week to face Rutgers.

BUFFALO 42, RUTGERS 13

SEPT. 22, 2018 • HIGHPOINT.COM STADIUM • PISCATAWAY, NJ

PISCATAWAY, NJ – It was a historic day for the University at Buffalo football program as the Bulls beat Rutgers, 42-13, at HighPoint.com Stadium on Saturday for their first ever win over a team from the Big 10 Conference. Buffalo improved to 4-0 on the season for the first time since the 1981 campaign.

The Bulls jumped out to a 35-6 first-half lead and never looked back. And, once again, they did so with a slew of big offense plays.

Tyree Jackson hit Anthony Johnson in stride for a 42-yard touchdown, midway through the first quarter, to not only open the Bulls' scoring, but the scoring floodgates.

Jaret Patterson followed with a 42-yard touchdown run, on the Bulls' next possession, to extend the Buffalo lead to 14-3. Patterson had the best game of his young career, as the freshman running back finished with 104 yards and two touchdowns on only 14 carries.

After a Rutgers field goal cut the UB lead to 14-6, early in the second quarter, Jackson eluded the pass rush, rolled to his right and threw a frozen rope to Johnson for a 59-yard gain, setting up a 1-yard touchdown plunge by Kevin Marks to extend the lead to 21-6.

The Bulls weren't done scoring. On a third down near midfield, Jackson hit a streaking Charlie Jones for a 53-yard touchdown right down the seam. Jackson then hit Tyler Mabry with a 9-yard touchdown pass, late in the second quarter, to give the Bulls a 35-6 lead at the half.

Rutgers never threatened in the second half. Patterson put the exclamation point on the win with a 4-yard touchdown run, with 3:34 left, to make the score 42-13.

It was another big game for Jackson. The junior signal-caller threw for 263 yards and three touchdowns in the game. He now has 15 touchdown passes on the season and has thrown for at least three scores in every game this year.

Johnson had 101 yards receiving and two touchdowns on only two catches. K.J. Osborn and Tyler Mabry each had three catches for the Bulls.

Buffalo had its best day rushing the ball this season. The Bulls ran for 182 yards on the day, led by Patterson's 104 yards. Marks had 63 yards rushing on 12 touches, including a 37-yard scamper.

Defensively, Khalil Hodge had a season-high 15 tackles to lead all players. Joey Banks added eight stops. The Bulls had eight tackles for loss in the game. None was bigger than Chuck Harris's sack on fourth down, with Rutgers on the UB 6-yard line and trailing 35-13, early in the fourth quarter.

ARMY WEST POINT 42 , BUFFALO 13

SEPT. 29, 2018 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

BUFFALO, NY – The University at Buffalo football team suffered its first loss of the season on Saturday afternoon, falling to Army, 42-13, in front of 23,671 fans at UB Stadium.

The game couldn't have started better for the Bulls. K.J. Osborn took a screen pass from Tyree Jackson and sprinted 53 yards down the sideline for a touchdown to give UB a 7-0 lead less than two minutes into the game.

On Army's ensuing possession, Brandon Williams came up with an interception near midfield and the Bulls were back in business. However, while Buffalo was able to move the ball into scoring position, it wasn't able to capitalize and the Black Knights took over.

Army drove the length of the field on its next possession to tie the game, 7-7, late in the first quarter. The Bulls struggled to stop Army's triple-option offense and another rushing touchdown midway through the second quarter gave the Black Knights the lead for good, 14-7.

The real swing of emotions came on Buffalo's next drive. The Bulls drove down the field and had a short field goal that would have cut the Army lead to 14-10. However, the Black Knights blocked the field goal attempt and returned it 80 yards for a touchdown. Army led 21-7 at the half.

Jackson connected with Charlie Jones on a 32-yard pass play on the Bulls first drive of the second half, setting up a first-and-goal for UB. Running back Kevin Marks punched it in from the 1-yard line to cut the Army lead to 21-13.

Army answered right back and scored on a rare pass play to regain a 28-13 lead late in the third quarter. The Bulls couldn't recover from the 15-point deficit to drop their first game of the season.

The UB offense struggled on the day as Army held the Bulls to a season-low 255 yards of total offense. Jackson was held in check for most of the game, finishing 10-of-24 for 152 yards and a touchdown. Emmanuel Reed was the Bulls' top rusher with 63 yards in the game. Osborn had a team-best four receptions for 82 yards and a score in the game.

Khalil Hodge led the Buffalo defense with 20 tackles, tying a career high. The senior linebacker moved into sixth place in school history in career tackles with 344, passing three players, including All-American linebacker Khalil Mack.

James Patterson also had a career high in tackles, finishing with 11. Chuck Harris had his team-best sixth sack in the game.

Despite the loss, the atmosphere was electric at UB Stadium. The 23,671 in attendance was the fifth-largest crowd in UB Stadium history.

BUFFALO 34, CENTRAL MICHIGAN 24

OCT. 6, 2018 • KELLY/SHORTS STADIUM • MOUNT PLEASANT, MI

MOUNT PLEASANT, MI – The University at Buffalo football team rushed for a season-high 307 yards and three touchdowns to defeat Central Michigan, 34-24, at Kelly/Shorts Stadium on Saturday afternoon. It was UB's first-ever win at Central Michigan to improve to 5-1 overall and 2-0 in Mid-American Conference play.

UB's young running backs led the way. Redshirt-freshman Kevin Marks rushed for a career-high 167 yards and a touchdown. It was the second-most rushing yards by a UB freshman in the Bulls' FBS era behind Marquis Dwarte's 173 yards against Akron in 2000. Freshman Jaret Patterson also rushed for a career high with 121 yards and a score.

"I think the thing that is really impressive is that when you have two young backs that are breaking tackles and getting yards after contact, it's pretty special, head coach Lance Leipold said."

While the running game paced the offense, the defense was led by its defensive backfield. The Bulls had a season-best four interceptions in the game. Brandon Williams, Cameron Lewis, Joey Banks and Aapri Washington all recorded interceptions in the game.

After Central Michigan kicked a field goal on its first possession, the Bulls drove right down the field and scored a touchdown on their first possession when Tyree Jackson found Tyler Mabry on a 6-yard touchdown pass. The Bulls would never trail again.

Midway through the second quarter, Jackson scored on a five-yard run to extend the UB lead to 14-3. Adam Mitcheson drilled a 26-yard field goal to give the Bulls a 17-3 lead at the half.

Central Michigan scored on its first drive of the second half to cut the UB lead to 17-10. However, Marks quickly silenced the Chippewas faithful, when, on the first play of Buffalo's ensuing drive, he ripped of a 70-yard touchdown run to regain a 14-point advantage for the Bulls.

Late in the third quarter, Central Michigan scored again to cut the UB advantage to 24-17. But, following a Lewis interception, Patterson rumbled in from 14 yards out to make it 31-17 early in the fourth quarter and silence the Chippewa threat.

The Bulls rolled up 434 yards of total offense. With the running game working so effectively, Jackson only needed to attempt 20 passes and threw for 127 yards and a score.

Khalil Hodge had seven tackles and Chuck Harris added six stops to lead the defense.

"We've been through enough close games," Leipold said. "I think our upperclassmen and our leaders have understood that's the way this conference is and you're going to have to play 60 minutes or 60 minutes-plus each and every Saturday. You've got to be able to keep going and our guys have really embraced that."

At 5-1, the Bulls are off to their best start since 1996 and their first 2-0 start to MAC play since the 2013 campaign. Buffalo will return home next Saturday to host Akron at UB Stadium. Kickoff is slated for noon.

BUFFALO 24, AKRON 6

OCT. 13, 2018 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

BUFFALO, NY – The University at Buffalo football team used its finest defensive effort of the season to defeat Akron, 24-6, at UB Stadium on Saturday afternoon in front of a homecoming crowd of nearly 20,000. It was the Bulls' sixth win of the season, making them bowl eligible for just the fourth time in program history.

Buffalo allowed only 235 yards of total offense, its lowest total allowed since allowing 223 yards against Colgate in last season's home opener. The Bulls held their opponent out of the endzone for the first time since the 2013 campaign.

"I'm really proud of our groups," head coach Lance Leipold said. "Our defensive effort I thought was outstanding, keeping them out of the end zone. Especially as you get to this point in the year when you're starting to get banged up in some spots. You're starting to see different guys at different times. Last week we had some guards step in. You saw a lot of those guys today. You're seeing the young freshmen and I think that's important because it wasn't the cleanest of first halves obviously, and for us to work through that, I don't know if we could have done that two years ago."

The Bulls got off to a bit of a sluggish start and trailed, 3-0, midway through the first quarter. Late in the first quarter, Tyree Jackson, who wore #41 in the game in honor of Solomon Jackson, rolled to his right and found George Rushing for a 17-yard touchdown pass to give the Bulls the lead for good, 7-3.

Adam Mitcheson kicked a 30-yard field goal midway through the second quarter to extend the UB lead to 10-3. An Akron field goal, as time expired before halftime, cut the UB advantage to 10-6, but that would be all the points the Zips would get.

The Bulls seemed to get the ground game rolling in the second half and Jaret Patterson played a big part. The freshman running back rushed for 54 of his game-high 91 yards in the third quarter and his 4-yard touchdown run gave the Bulls a 17-6 lead with 1:56 left in the third quarter.

The UB defense ratcheted up the pressure in the second half and did so with the help of reserve Taylor Riggins. The sophomore defensive end had back-to-back sacks and, on Akron's next drive, his quarterback hurry led to a Jordan Collier interception. The Bulls capitalized on their next drive when Jackson scored on a quarterback sneak to extend the UB lead to 24-6.

Khalil Hodge led the Bulls with 12 tackles and had 1.5 of the Bulls' seven tackles for loss in the game. Along with his interception, Collier added three tackles and 1.5 tackles for loss. The Bulls also forced four fumbles in the game and had five pass breakups.

The Bulls had a balanced offensive attack, rushing for 223 yards and passing for 212 more. Jackson threw for 212 yards and a touchdown. He also did damage with his legs, rushing for a season-high 57 yards and a score. Patterson rushed for 91 yards on 17 carries and Kevin Marks, making his first career start, finished with 64 yards on 15 tries.

K.J. Osborn posted his second 100-yard receiving game of the season with 116 yards on six catches. Anthony Johnson was back in the lineup after missing most of the last two games with an injury and had a pair of catches for 44 yards, including a spectacular one-handed grab for 28 yards.

The Bulls are 6-1 for the first time since the 1959 season. They will next play at Toledo next Saturday at noon.

BUFFALO 31, TOLEDO 17

OCT. 20, 2018 • GLASS BOWL • TOLEDO, OH

TOLEDO, OH – The University at Buffalo football team rallied to score 24 unanswered points and erase a 17-7 halftime deficit to defeat Toledo, 31-17, at the Glass Bowl on Saturday afternoon. It was Buffalo's first ever win at Toledo and improved the Bulls to 7-1 overall and 4-0 in the Mid-American Conference.

It was a tale of two halves for the Bulls who struggled to get anything going in the first thirty minutes. UB uncharacteristically turned the ball over and allowed a number of sacks that helped lead to the 17-7 halftime deficit. However, after regrouping in the locker room, the Bulls came out and played like a totally different team in the second half.

The Bulls defense held Toledo, the MAC's highest-scoring offense, to zero points and just 65 yards of total offense in the second half. Buffalo's offense did the rest.

On their opening drive of the third quarter, the Bulls drove down the field and Adam Mitcheson drilled a 39-yard field goal to cut the Toledo lead to 17-10. Mitcheson's field goal was the 44th of his career, tying A.J. Principe for the school record for field goals.

A K.J. Osborn 20-yard punt return to the Toledo 32-yard line had the Bulls back in business and it only took them one play to cash in. Tyree Jackson connected with Anthony Johnson on a slant over the middle and the preseason All-American did the rest, eluding tacklers and darting to the endzone to tie the game at 17-17.

The Bulls came up with their second turnover of the second half when Brandon Williams intercepted a pass near midfield. Three plays later, Jaret Patterson raced into the endzone on a 6-yard touchdown run to give Buffalo its first lead of the game, 24-17, early in the fourth quarter.

Patterson wasn't done. The freshman running back scored on a 25-yard touchdown run with 2:49 left to ice the game for the Bulls.

"I'm so proud of this group for how they battled back," head coach Lance Leipold said. "There wasn't any panic at halftime. We had guys step up. When you see people step up, creating depth, you're creating confidence. Right now, all across the board, this team is playing with confidence."

Jackson shrugged off a shaky first half to throw for 326 yards and two touchdowns. Johnson, who had been limited in previous games with an injury, looked healthy and had four catches for 83 yards and two touchdowns.

K.J. Osborn tied a season high with seven catches for 90 yards. Tyler Mabry and George Rushing each posted career highs with six and five catches, respectively.

On the ground, Jaret Patterson led the Bulls with 90 yards and two touchdowns. Kevin Marks added 49 rushing yards.

The Bulls' hung their hats on their defense for this win. Khalil Hodge led Buffalo with a game-high 13 tackles and added a tackle for loss. Freshman James Patterson had the best game of his young career with nine tackles, a tackle for loss and a forced fumble that was recovered by Cameron Lewis.

The Bulls were without starting defensive end Chuck Harris and starting safety Joey Banks for the game. Myles Nicholas stepped up his play with six tackles, a sack and 1.5 tackles for loss. Taylor Riggins started in Harris' place and notched his third sack in the last two games.

BUFFALO 51, MIAMI (OH) 42

OCT. 30, 2018 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

BUFFALO, NY – The University at Buffalo football team scored a season-high 51 points in a 51-42 win over Miami (OH) at UB Stadium on Tuesday night. It was the Bulls fourth straight win to keep them atop the Mid-American Conference East Division standings at 5-0 and 8-1 overall.

The Bulls rolled up a season-high 505 yards of total offense, mostly through the air thanks to a record-breaking performance by Anthony Johnson. The senior wideout finished with a single-game school record 238 receiving yards on eight catches and had three touchdowns grabs.

Quarterback Tyree Jackson accounted for six touchdowns in the game. The junior signal-caller threw for three touchdowns and ran for a career-best three more. Jackson threw for a season-high 358 yards in the game.

Trailing 7-0, the Bulls struck quickly, as Jackson connected with Johnson on a 75-yard touchdown pass on the Bulls' second play of the game to quickly tie the contest at 7-7. Following a Miami touchdown on its next possession, Jackson used his feet to score on a 7-yard touchdown run to once again tie the game at 14-14.

Following a blocked punt, Miami took its third lead of the game early in the second quarter to once again go ahead, 21-14. However, the Bulls struck back when, on 3rd-and-17, Jackson connected with Johnson again for a 20-yard score to tie the game.

Jackson's second touchdown run of the game came with just 38 seconds left in the half when he scored from five yards out to give Buffalo its first lead of the game, 28-21.

Capped by another Jackson touchdown run, this time from four yards out, the Bulls took the opening kickoff of the second half and drove 75 yards down the field to take a 35-21 lead in the game.

Johnson caught his third touchdown of the game on a 10-yard pass from Jackson to put the Bulls ahead, 42-28. However, in typical #MACtion fashion, Buffalo's 14-point lead didn't last long.

Following a 59-yard touchdown play from Miami, the RedHawks surprised the Bulls with an onside kick and recovered it. Miami capitalized and scored a touchdown in the closing seconds of the third quarter to tie the game at 42-42.

Midway through the fourth quarter, Jaret Patterson scored on a 4-yard run to give the Bulls the lead for good, 48-42. Patterson finished the game with 96 yards on a career-high 23 carries.

With 3:54 left, Adam Mitcheson drilled a 37-yard field goal to extend the Buffalo lead to 51-42 and put the game on ice. It was the senior kicker's 45th career field goal, setting a new school record.

Despite giving up 42 points, the Bulls played good defense down the stretch, when it mattered most. Kadofi Wright had a strip sack that was recovered by James Patterson to helped seal the win. Khalil Hodge had 11 tackles, a sack and two tackles for loss to lead the Bulls. Buffalo tied a season high with six sacks in the game.

BUFFALO 48, KENT STATE 14

NOV. 6, 2018 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

BUFFALO, NY – The University at Buffalo football team cruised to a 48-14 win over Kent State on Tuesday night at UB Stadium to improve to 9-1 on the year – its best start in school history. The Bulls also improved to 6-0 in Mid-American Conference play for the first time since joining the league in 1999.

In blustery conditions, with wins over 25 miles per hour, the Bulls relied on a steady dose of the ground game and rushed for a season-best 358 yards in the game. Jaret Patterson set the tone early by ripping off a 64-yard touchdown run on the second play from scrimmage to quickly give the Bulls a 7-0 lead. The freshman running back ran for a career-high 187 yards and two touchdowns on 18 carries.

The Bulls scored on each of their first four drives of the game and five of their first six possessions. Five different Bulls scored rushing touchdowns in the game. Along with Patterson's two scores, Tyree Jackson (1 yd), Emmanuel Reed (2 yds), Kevin Marks (5 yds) and Theo Anderson (11 yds) also scored rushing touchdowns.

Jackson attempted only 16 passes in the game, but threw a three-yard touchdown to Anthony Johnson early in the third quarter to extend the UB lead to 41-0. It was Johnson's sixth touchdown catch in the last three games. Jackson finished the game with 111 yards passing.

A week after giving up 42 points to Miami (OH), the Buffalo defense played its most dominant game of the season. The Bulls held Kent State to just 34 yards of total offense through the first three quarters.

Matt Otwinowski filled in admirably for Khalil Hodge at middle linebacker. With Hodge out for the first half for his targeting penalty in last week's game, Otwinowski earned the first start of his career. The junior from Indiana led the Bulls with eight tackles and had a tackle for loss in the game.

Justin Brandon, one of 20 seniors honored before the game, had a career-best two sacks on the night. As a team, the Bulls had eight tackles for loss.

"I'm very proud and pleased with the way we played," head coach Lance Leipold said. "I think the thing that made the difference was getting off to the good start, getting the field position, scoring early and then being able to play a lot of guys in the second half."

Buffalo will travel to Ohio next Wednesday for a chance to win the MAC East Division Championship.

OHIO 52, BUFFALO 17

NOV. 14, 2018 • PEDEN STADIUM • ATHENS, OH

ATHENS, OH – In a series won by the home team every year since 2010, Ohio held serve, defeating the University at Buffalo football team, 52-17, at Peden Stadium on Wednesday night. It was the Bulls first conference and road loss of the season. At 9-2 overall and 6-1 in the Mid-American Conference, Buffalo will play at Bowling Green next week with a chance to clinch to MAC East Division title.

It was a promising start for Buffalo as the Bulls drove 75 yards on seven plays and scored on a four-yard touchdown run by Tyree Jackson on their first possession of the game. Jackson connected with Anthony Johnson on a 48-yard pass play on third down to help set up the score.

However, the rest of the night belonged to the Bobcats. Ohio capitalized on three first-half Buffalo turnovers and scored on seven straight possessions to build their lead. Trailing 24-7 midway through the second quarter, Jackson ripped off a 55-yard to the Ohio five-yard line before having the ball jarred loose and recovered by the Bobcats. That's the kind of night it was for the Bulls.

Johnson had six catches for 95 yards in the game to lead the offense. Jackson had a season-high 70 yards on three carries to lead Buffalo's rushing attack. Kevin Marks rushed for 54 yards on nine carries and scored on a 14-yard touchdown run for his ninth score of the year.

Ohio, the preseason favorite to with the Mid-American Conference, rushed for 437 yards in the game and dominated the line of scrimmage.

"Ohio executed really well," head coach Lance Leipold. "That's a good football team. We've been saying it all along. But we did not play well in any area. We had a few flashes. We've got to own that and turn the page quickly and get this group ready to play at Bowling Green."

Brandon Williams had a career-high 11 tackles for the Bulls. Khalil Hodge also had 11 stops and added his first interception of the season.

Buffalo will next play at Bowling Green next Friday at noon. If the Bulls defeat the Falcons they will win the MAC East crown and earn a trip to Detroit to play in the MAC Championship.

BUFFALO 44, BOWLING GREEN 14

NOV. 23, 2018 • DOYT PERRY STADIUM • BOWLING GREEN, OH

BOWLING GREEN, OH – For the second time in school history, the University at Buffalo football team will play for the Mid-American Conference Championship after defeating Bowling Green, 44-14, at Doyt Perry Stadium on Friday afternoon. The Bulls won the MAC East title and will advance to Detroit to face Northern Illinois next Friday.

Buffalo (10-2, 7-1 MAC) dominated the line of scrimmage and, behind the blocking of their offense line, rushed for 332 yards and four touchdowns in the game. Jaret Patterson set the tone early with 88 yards and two touchdowns on only 11 carries. He opened the scoring with a 40-yard touchdown run. The freshman running back added an 11-yard TD in the second quarter.

Kevin Marks also scored on touchdown runs of one and three yards and finished with 63 yards in the game. Buffalo's leading rusher was Emmanuel Reed who had a game-high 109 yards on only 15 carries.

With the game tied, 7-7, midway through the first quarter, Tyree Jackson connected with George Rushing on a 37-yard touchdown pass, on fourth down, to give the Bulls a 13-7 lead.

Bowling Green crossed midfield on its next possession, before the UB defense made a play that change the course of the entire game. Khalil Hodge jarred the ball loose from Falcon receiver Scott Miller and Brandon Williams scooped up the ball and raced 69 yards for a touchdown to extend the Buffalo lead to 20-7 early in the second quarter.

Patterson and Marks each had touchdown runs later in the second quarter to give the Bulls a 34-7 lead at the half.

Nursing a big lead, Buffalo worked the clock in the second half. Marks added his second rushing touchdown of the game late in the third quarter and Alex McNulty made his first career field goal, a 21-yarder, in the fourth quarter to make the score 41-7.

The Bulls held Bowling Green to 205 yards of total offense, including only 58 yards on the ground. Buffalo forced two turnovers in the game. Besides Williams' fumble return, Tatum Slack added his first career interception.

Khalil Hodge led the UB defense with seven tackles, to move into third place in school history with 406 career tackles. He became the fastest player in school history to reach 400 tackles, doing so in only three seasons.

"We have an awfully excited group in there and on a Thanksgiving weekend, I just told the team how thankful I was to be their head coach," head coach Lance Liepold said. "They've gone through a lot. They've worked really hard for this opportunity and to win 10 games and play for a championship is pretty special."

The 10 wins are a school record for a single season and the 7-1 finish in MAC play is the team's best since joining the conference in 1999.

Buffalo will next meet Northern Illinois in the Mid-American Conference Championship Game next Friday at Ford Field. The game will kick off at 7 pm and air on ESPN2. The Bulls will look to repeat history, 10 years after winning the 2008 MAC title.

NORTHERN ILLINOIS 30, BUFFALO 29

NOV. 30, 2018 • FORD FIELD • DETROIT, MI

DETROIT, MI – Northern Illinois struck on a 35-yard touchdown pass with 1:09 remaining in the game to defeat the University Buffalo football team, 30-29, in the Mid-American Conference Championship game at Ford Field on Friday night. The final touchdown gave the Huskies their first lead of the game.

The Buffalo offense was rolling early, scoring on each of its first five possessions of the game. Each of the Bulls' first two scoring drives were 94 yards. Kevin Marks got the Bulls on the board first with a three-yard touchdown run to give UB a 7-0 lead midway through the first quarter.

The Bulls took a 13-0 lead on the first play of the second quarter when Tyree Jackson connected with Anthony Johnson on a 13-yard fade in the corner of the endzone. The Huskies responded with a touchdown pass on their next possession to cut the UB lead to 13-7.

Jackson and Johnson connected again on a 26-yard touchdown pass on Buffalo's next drive to extend the Buffalo lead to 19-7 with 5:41 left in the half. Following a Northern Illinois field goal to cut the lead to 19-10, the Bulls marched down the field in the closing minute of the second quarter and Adam Mitcheson made a 24-yard field goal to give the Bulls a 22-10 lead at the break.

The Bulls took the opening kickoff of the second half and marched 75 yards on eight plays. Jaret Patterson ran up the middle for a 9-yard touchdown to extend the lead to 29-10. However, those would be the final points of the game for the Bulls.

Northern Illinois scored 20 points in the final 15:17 of the contest, all on passing touchdowns to pull out the one-point victory. Huskie quarterback Marcus Childers threw for a career-high 300 yards and four touchdowns to lead the comeback.

A big turning point in the game came with just under six minutes to play when, with the Bulls leading 29-24 and the ball near midfield, Jackson called his own number and ran for 19 yards to the NIU 29. However, a holding call brought the ball back to Buffalo's own 42-yard line. The Bulls would end up having to punt, setting up the Huskies' game-winning drive.

Buffalo worked the ball to the Northern Illinois 41-yard-line in the closing minute, but turned the ball over on downs to end the game.

The Bulls were successful running the ball against a stout NIU defense, ranked first in the MAC. Marks and Patterson each rushed for 72 yards and a touchdown in the game.

Jackson finished with 252 yards and two touchdowns through the air. Johnson was his favorite target as the senior wideout finished with seven catches for 124 yards and two scores. K.J. Osborn added three catches for 66 yards in the game.

As he's done all season, Khalil Hodge led the Buffalo defense with nine tackles and a sack. James Patterson had seven tackles and another of the Bulls' four sacks in the game. Tatum Slack had his second interception in as many games.

"This one stings and it's going to for this group, because they've worked so hard," head coach Lance Leipold said. "We have to move on. We'll get together on Sunday and hopefully find out where we go."

Buffalo is now 10-3 on the season and will await to see which bowl game it is selected to play in.

TROY 42, BUFFALO 32

DEC. 22, 2018 • LADD-PEEBLES STADIUM • MOBILE, AL

MOBILE, AL – The University at Buffalo football team uncharacteristically turned the ball over four times and it proved to be the difference in a 42-32 loss to Troy in the Dollar General Bowl held at Ladd-Peebles Stadium on Saturday night. The Trojans were able to score 14 points off turnovers and had possession of the ball for much of the second half.

It started out well for the Bulls as, like they had done many times this season, went right down and scored on their first possession of the game. After Antonio Nunn hauled in a deflected pass for a 51-yard gain, Jaret Patterson scored on an 11-yard touchdown run to give Buffalo a quick 7-0 lead.

Troy needed just three plays to tie the game, as Trojan quarterback Sawyer Smith hit a streaking Tray Eafford in stride for a 60-yard touchdown.

The Bulls mounted a 14-play, 96-yard drive, early in the second quarter, and Kevin Marks capped the drive with a 1-yard touchdown dive to give the Bulls a 14-7 lead with 11:06 left in the half.

After the Trojans tied the game at 14-14 with 6:15 left in the second quarter, the Bulls mounted a 10-play, 41-yard drive and Adam Mitcheson drilled a 41-yard field goal with 52 seconds left to give UB a 17-14 lead at the half.

The Trojans took the opening kick of the second half and kept their offense on the field for the entire third quarter. After mounting a 75-yard scoring touchdown drive on their first possession to take a 21-17 lead, Troy surprised the Bulls with an onside kick and got the ball right back. However, with the ball inside the UB 5-yard line and it looking like Troy was going to score again, James Patterson came up with a big hit to jar the ball loose from the Trojans quarterback. Safety Tyrone Hill scooped it up and dashed 93-yards for a touchdown to put the Bulls back up, 24-21.

However, a gassed UB defense remained on the field and Troy capitalized. The Trojans needed 12 plays to drive 69 yards and scored on a 2-yard touchdown pass to regain a 28-24 lead early in the fourth quarter. Following a 3-and-out by the Bulls, Troy struck again, connected on a 45-yard touchdown pass to build its lead to 35-24 with 11:25 left in the game.

The Bulls didn't give up. K.J. Osborn made a spectacular one-handed touchdown grab to cut the deficit to 35-30. On the ensuing 2-point conversion try, Tyree Jackson scrambled, eluded rushers and found Nunn in the endzone for the conversion. The Bulls trailed 35-32 with 7:24 left in the game.

Following a Wesley Scott third-down sack, the Bulls got the ball back on their own 21-yard line with 3:28 left and trailing by three. However, on the first play of the drive, Jackson was sacked and fumbled the ball. It was recovered by Troy. On the very next play, the Trojans ran it in for a touchdown to extend their lead to 42-32.

Despite the loss, a number of Bulls finished the season by hitting significant milestones. Patterson rushed for 67 yards in the game to put him over 1,000 for the season. With 1,013 yards on the year, he became the first freshman running back in school history to rush for 1,000 yards in a season.

Anthony Johnson had 67 yards on five catches to go over 1,000 yards on the year. He became just the third player in school history to have two 1,000-yard seasons in a career.

Jackson threw for 274 yards in the game to put him over 3,000 for the season. He joined Drew Willy (2008) as just the second quarterback in school history to throw for 3,000 yards in a single season with 3,131.

In addition, All-MAC center James O'Hagan made his 50th career start for the Bulls. He became just the second player in school history to start 50 games in a career (Pete Bittner was the other).

The Bulls finished the 2018 campaign with a school-record 10 wins and advanced to a bowl game for just the third time school history.

History of UB Football

The year was 1894. Fourteen University at Buffalo medical students got together, bought uniforms and practiced after classes, splitting time at Brown's Riding Academy on East North Street and John's Riding Academy on East Utica. After honing their skills carefully, avoiding remnants of horses that grazed their practice pastures, they put on their blue jerseys, tight pants, and leather boots and stepped onto a baseball field on East Ferry Street to face Hobart College. As they kicked off to the visitors, no one among those first UB football players could have foreseen the journey they were embarking upon. They were not merely kicking a football, they were kicking off UB's quest for intercollegiate competition.

UB's football program began modestly when the University, then a private institution consisting of schools of dentistry, law, medicine and pharmacy, formed an athletic association. The athletic association in turn started the first football program. That first team was led by captain A. B. Stein who was joined by founding members J.B. Crofts, Irving Johnson, William Potter, Gray McCuthcheon, St. John Green and "Dinky" Johnson. During the first three years of its existence, the football team played squads from the University of Rochester and Hobart College and experienced little success, compiling a record of 0-2-4. Most importantly however, the team gained recognition from UB during this period when the University granted the team usage of an on-campus field for its home games.

UB football savored its first taste of success in 1897 when the team compiled a 7-0 record under manager E.J. Meyer and coach C.W. Dibble. Crowds began to flock to UB's home games, and in response the university moved many of the team's more popular contests to Civic Stadium in 1900.

The UB football bandwagon really gained momentum when the team played in an exhibition match at the 1901 Pan-American Exposition. UB played in front of a Chinese representative who "... did not understand much about the game, was delighted to see the sport." This high point was short-lived however, as UB was dealt a crushing 128-0 defeat by national powerhouse University of Michigan in what remains the worst defeat ever suffered by a UB squad. That loss seemingly was symbolic of the hard times to come as poor support and organization for the following two seasons forced UB's athletic association to cease football operations after the 1903 season.

Frank M. Pleasant awoke the hibernating UB football program in 1915 when he revitalized the program as the team's first full-time, professional head coach. UB adopted the Bison as its mascot that year and proceeded to a 3-3 record.

Art Powell took over the reins of the program in 1916, helping UB to improve with each season. UB football hit a peak in 1918 when the squad compiled a 3-1 record. The Bisons also enjoyed their most lopsided victory to date during the '18 campaign, an 81-0 defeat of Hobart.

The 1923 season brought many changes to UB's football program. James Batterson took over as head coach and the Bisons played their first game at Rotary Field, dedicated by the Rotary Club of Buffalo. Dr. James Ailinger, a standout basketball player for UB and a member of the 1922 football team, recalled UB's humble facilities on opening day at Rotary Field.

"The first season we played here we had to dress up in Hayes Hall and run to the field," said Ailinger. "In between there was a farm, so we had to run through potato and vegetable fields to reach the stadium. Only the end zone was marked. There were stones everywhere and the end zone on the side near the present medical school was six feet higher than the other side. Winning the toss was important because we could choose to play uphill or downhill."

UB struggled the first season in its new home, compiling a 1-5 record.

The six seasons that followed under head coaches James Bond (1923) and Russell Carrick (1924-28) were rather bleak as well. The Bisons did not have a winningseason over that period, tallying a record of 7-36-3. By 1929 it was quite evident that UB's football program desperately needed resuscitation once again. The man to jump start UB was head coach Jay "Biffy" Lee, former roommate at Notre Dame of legendary coach Knute Rockne. Some of Rockne's majestical motivation must have rubbed off as Lee led UB to a 5-2 record in what would be the Bisons only winning campaign in 16 seasons. Lee upgraded UB's schedule during the following two seasons and the Bisons' record suffered once again as they fell to squads from Fordham, Carnegie Tech, Dartmouth and the Notre Dame B team.

In 1931, the team changed its mascot to the Bull in order to distinguish UB from the professional teams in the Queen City.

Jim Peelle was hired as the 12th head coach in Bulls' history in 1936 with the burden of ending six consecutive losing campaigns. Peelle rejuvenated the program by notching five victories against three losses in his inaugural season. That success was short-lived however, as UB failed to post another winning season until 1942 when Peelle's squad went 6-2 once again with impressive victories over Hobart, St. Lawrence and Johns Hopkins.

UB heeded the call of its nation after the 1942 season by suspending all intercollegiate athletics due to the country's involvement in World War II. The Bulls returned to the field in 1946 and staged their second consecutive winning season for the first time since 1899. Civic Stadium became the home site for all UB home games in 1946, a relationship which lasted until 1954.

Frank Clair was handpicked by Peelle to be his replacement in 1948. Clair extended UB's consecutive winning seasons mark to five during his two-year stint. The highlight of Clair's tenure was a 48-13 victory over the heavily-favored Louisville Cardinals.

The Canadian Football League lured Clair away in 1950 and UB Athletic Director Jim Peelle brought back a familiar face to lead the Bulls, former head coach James Wilson. Despite severe cutbacks in the football program's budget and mediocre seasons, the Bulls drew 26,126 fans to Civic Stadium, setting a single-game attendance record, in a 47-13 loss to Colgate.

In 1955, Clifford C. Furnas was named Chancellor of the University and instituted a five-year plan aimed at upgrading UB's athletic programs. Richard "Dick" Offenhamer was tabbed to lead the Bulls back to respectability and did so by posting a 4-4-1 record in his initial season. Fran Woidzik, a standout on the 1955 squad, went on to become the first Bull to be taken in the National Football League draft. Offenhamer's first season was a prelude of good things to come for the Bulls, as he would end his career with UB's best career winning percentage.

The year 1958 will forever be remembered as one of the greatest seasons in UB football history. On the strength of an 8-1 record that included victories over Harvard and Columbia, UB claimed the prestigious Lambert Cup, emblematic of Eastern small college supremacy. Team captains Nick Bottini and Lou Reale accepted the award on the Ed Sullivan Show on December 14 of that year before a national audience. The Bulls also earned an invitation to the Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, Florida but declined the offer to protest the discriminatory policies of the bowl's stadium, which refused to allow black athletes to compete on its field.

UB FOOTBALL HISTORY

After posting an 8-1 record and finishing second in the Lambert Cup competition to Delaware in 1959, UB moved up to University Division status in 1960.

UB football made great strides in the early 1960s with stars like quarterback John "Long John" Stofa and defensive tackle Gerry Philbin. Stofa rewrote UB's passing records during his career while Philbin was named to the All-East team and played in the North-South and Coaches All-American post-season games. Both Stofa and Philbin would go on to play in the NFL following their UB careers.

UB reached another pinnacle in 1962, being recognized as "major" by the NCAA. UB also received attention in 1964 when its contest at Boston University was televised to a national audience.

Doc Urich handled UB's coaching duties for the 1966-68 seasons after Offenhamer stepped down. Urich guided UB to its finest season at the "major" level with a 7-3 record, losing only to Iowa State, Boston College and Villanova.

Bob Deming took over as head coach for the 1969 and '70 seasons and led the Bulls to wins over Boston College and Villanova in 1969. In 1970, ABC-TV regionally televised a 16-0 UB victory over Holy Cross at Rotary Field in the only game in UB history to be broadcast from Buffalo by a major network.

The black day in UB football history came in January of 1971 when due to expenses and the political climate on campus, football was dropped as a varsity sport.

In the fall of 1977, with the support of students, alumni and administration, UB restarted its football program with head coach Bill Dando at the reins. UB played four games in that first season, playing RIT to a 7-7 tie in its very first game back, the last tie in UB school history.

The Bulls built back to respectability quickly and did not have a losing season from 1980-1984, posting a 30-21 record.

In 1985, UB moved to the greener pastures of the Amherst Campus and the 4,000-seat UB Stadium. The Bulls defeated Villanova, 29-27, in Philadelphia in 1986 and once again talk of a possible upgrade of UB's program was alive.

New University President Steven Sample appealed to the Intercollegiate Athletics Board (IAB) in 1985 to upgrade UB to Division I-AA status. The IAB granted that request and after approval by the SUNY system in February of 1986, the "Run to Division I" had begun.

Former UB great Sam Sanders was hired in 1990 to replace Bill Dando and lead the Bulls from Division III and into the spotlight of Division I. After two rebuilding years under Sanders, the program took a hard hit when the head coach was forced to step down for medical reasons. Jim Ward, UB's offensive coordinator under Sanders, became the 20th head coach of the University at Buffalo's football program in 1992.

Under the direction of Athletic Director Nelson E. Townsend with the strong support of University President William R. Greiner, UB completed its "Run to Division I" on September 4, 1993, playing its first game at the Division I level in more than 20 years against the University of Maine. UB unveiled its $22 million, 16,500-seat UB Stadium on the Amherst Campus, site of the 1993 World University Games. In front of 14,179 fans, the Bulls put on quite a show, taking the lead with 51 seconds remaining in the contest. Maine spoiled UB's return, however, scoring a last-second touchdown to earn a 31-27 win.

In January of 1995, the Bulls came full circle when they hired UB alum Craig Cirbus ('80), who had spent the previous 11 years as an assistant under legendary coach Joe Paterno at Penn State.

A few months later, the Bulls wowed Western New York when they announced that they would be heading to Division I-A and the Mid-American Conference in 1999.

The 1996 season will go down as one of the finest in school history. The Bulls finished 8-3 on the season, earning the first Top 25 ranking in school history and earning Cirbus I-AA Independent National Coach of theYear honors. In addition, three Bulls (Ed Ellis, Craig Guest and Gerald Carlson) signed NFL contracts with Ellis being picked in the 4th round by the New England Patriots.

In 1999, UB rejoined the ranks of major college football with its entrance into the Mid-American Conference. The Bulls were back in the big-time for the first time in nearly 30 years.

The Bulls earned their first Division I-A victory in 30 years on September 23, 2000 when they nipped Bowling Green, 20-17, at UB Stadium. Buffalo would go on to defeat Kent State and finish 2-4 in the MAC East in 2000.

On November 30, 2000 Athletic Director Bob Arkeilpane announced the hiring of Jim Hofher as the 22nd head football coach in UB history. Hofher brought with him to Buffalo 22 years of Division I coaching experience, including stints as an assistant at Tennessee, Syracuse and North Carolina and eight years as head coach at Cornell University.

On December 16, 2005 Athletic Director Warde Manuel announced that Turner Gill, who was part of three national championships as a coach at the University of Nebraska and a Heisman Trophy finalist as a player, agreed to a five-year contract to become the 23rd head football coach at the University at Buffalo. In his first season with the Bulls, UB scored 220 points, the most by a Buffalo team since moving to I-A.

Buffalo had its most successful season since returning to the Division I-A ranks in 2007. The Bulls finished the year 5-7 overall and 5-3 in the Mid-American Conference for a share of the East Division regular season title. Turner Gill was named MAC Coach of the Year and a UB record eight players were named to the All-Conference Team. Junior quarterback Drew Willy completed a school-record 258 passes and had the highest pass efficiency rating in school history and sophomore running back James Starks became the Bulls' first 1,000-yard rusher in the I-A era with 1,103 yards.

On December 5, 2008 the Bulls defeated 12th-ranked and undefeated Ball State to win the MAC Championship for the first time in school history.

The Bulls had an 8-6 record in 2008. The eight wins were the most in the Bulls' Division I-A era and one shy of the school record for wins in a season.

The 2008 season featured one of the most explosive offenses in school history. Gill, who handled the play calling, commanded an offense that scored a school-record 424 points. Quarterback Drew Willy threw for a school-record 3,304 yards and 25 touchdowns, running back James Starks ran for a school-record 1,333 yards and 16 touchdowns and wideout Naaman Roosevelt established school records of 104 receptions, 1,402 yards and 13 touchdowns.

The Bulls played in their first ever bowl game when they faced off against Connecticut in the 2009 International Bowl.

The Bulls finished 2009 season 5-7 and featured an offense that averaged 405 yards per game - the highest average in UB's Division I-A era. Numerous Bulls wrapped up record-breaking careers. Although he missed the entire season with a shoulder injury, Starks finished his career as the school record holder for rushing (3,140 yards) and rushing touchdowns (34). He was selected by the Green Bay Packers in the sixth round of the NFL Draft. Naaman Roosevelt set the school record for receptions (268) and receiving yards (3,551) and signed with the Buffalo

Bills.

Jeff Quinn was hired as Buffalo's 24th head coach on December 22, 2010. Quinn has produced record-breaking offenses throughout his 27-year college coaching tenure and has won conference and national championships at his last three stops, including five conference crowns in the past eight seasons. He most recently spent three seasons as the offensive coordinator at Cincinnati.

In 2010, Davonte Shannon broke the school record for career tackles with 461 enroute to being named to the All-MAC First Team for the fourth straight year. He became just the fourth player in the history of the Mid-American Conference to earn that distinction. Cornerback Josh Thomas was selected in the fifth round (143rd pick) of the NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

in 2011, Branden Oliver rushed for a school-record 1,395 yards and added 13 touchdowns en route to earning first-team All-MAC honors. Chazz Anderson transfered from Cincinnati to play his final season at Buffalo. The UB signal caller threw for 2,454 yards and 11 touchdowns on the year. He set a single-game school record with 35 completions against Northern Illinois (10/22). Khalil Mack ranked third in the nation in tackles for loss with 20.5.

The Bulls had a strong finish to the 2012 campaign by winning three of the final four games. Using a plethora of running backs, the Bulls rushed for 2,120 yards - the third highest total in school history. Khalil Mack was named All-MAC First Team for the second straight year in a season in which he set the school record for career tackles for loss (56) and forced fumbles (11).

UB had one of its finest seasons as a Division I-A program in 2013. The Bulls went 8-5, including a 6-2 record in the MAC. It was their most MAC wins since joining the conference in 1999. UB advanced to the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl for just its second ever bowl appearance in school history.

Branden Oliver finished his career as the Bulls all-time leading rusher with 4,409 yards. Alex Neutz broke the school record for career touchdown receptions with 31. And then there was Khalil Mack. The All-American linebacker broke the NCAA record for career forced fumbles with 16 and tied the NCAA mark for career takles for loss with 75. He went on to become the Bulls' highest drafted player in school history as he was picked fifth overall by the Oakland Raiders in the 2014 NFL Draft.

Anthone Taylor rushed for 1,403 yards in 2014 - the second-highest single-season effort in school history. Lance Leipold was named the 25th UB football head coach on Dec. 1, 2014. Kristjan Sokoli was selected in the sixth round of the 2015 NFL Draft by the Seattle Seahawks.

The Bulls went 5-7 under first-year head coach Lance Leipold. Quarterback Joe Licata capped off his stellar career by setting nine different school passing records, including career passing yards (9,485) and career touchdown passes (76).

In 2016, Jordan Johnson rushed for over 1,000 yards on the season, including a school-record 282 yards in a game vs. Akron. Linebacker Khalil Hodge finished the season with 123 tackles , just two shy of the FBS-era record for a single season.

The Bulls won the final three games of the 2017 season to finish 6-6 and earn bowl eligibility for just the third time in school history. In his first season at UB, junior wide receiver Anthony Johnson burst onto the scene with 76 catches for 1,356 yards and a school-record 14 touchdowns. Linebacker Khalil Hodge set an FBS-era record with 154 tackles on the year.

2018 was arguably the best season in the FBS era. The Bulls won a school-record 10 games, including a 7-1 mark in conference play - their best since joining the MAC in 1999. Buffalo played in the MAC Championship game for the second time in school history, dropping a 30-29 heartbreaker to Northern Illinois. UB played in its third bowl game in program history, falling to Troy, 42-32, in the Dollar General Bowl. Quarterback Tyree Jackson was named the MAC Offensive Player of the Year - the first time a UB player won the award.

UB FOOTBALL HISTORY

1846 UB founded as a medical school.
1894 Athletic Association founded, football play begins. UB falls to Hobart, 12-6, in first-ever game. UB finishes season 0-1-1.
1897 UB finishes with a 7-0 record, its only undefeated season to date.
1903 Program canceled due to lack of personnel, money and leadership.
1915 Program is reinstated. Frank M. Pleasant becomes UB's first professional full-time coach.
1930 Rotary Field dedicated by The Rotary Club of Buffalo.
1931 Local pro teams adopt "Bisons" nickname. UB takes the "Bulls" moniker.
1935 Jim Peelle, former All-Big Ten quarterback, named head coach after the season.
1936 In his first season at the helm, Peelle goes 6-3.
1943 University's Policy and Coordination Committee votes to suspend all intercollegiate athletics for the duration of World War II.
1946 Football returns. Team goes 7-2, playing all home games at Civic Stadium.
1947 Football earns regional respect, posting an 8-1 record and outscoring opponents 258-87.
1948 Peelle retires from football to concentrate on duties as Athletic Director; new coach Frank Clair leads Bulls to a 6-1-1 record.
1949 Squad goes 6-3, post-war record is 27-8-1.
1951 UB goes 4-4, drawing a record crowd of 26,126 in a 47-13 loss to Colgate at Civic Stadium.
1955 Dick Offenhamer named head coach. New UB Chancellor Dr. Clifford Furnas institutes five-year plan to upgrade athletics. Bulls return to Rotary Field for home games.
1958 Team goes 8-1, wins Lambert Cup for small eastern college supremacy, beating Harvard and Columbia. Bulls receive Tangerine Bowl bid, but Peelle declines because black players were not welcome. Offenhamer named National Coach of the Week after win over Columbia.
1959 Another standout 8-1 season; Bulls are second to Delaware in Lambert Cup voting.
1960 UB moves up to University Division status. Team goes 4-6.
1961 First annual East-West All-America football game played at War Memorial Stadium. Quarterback John Stofa, who would later play for the Miami Dolphins and Cincinnati Bengals, was the game's Most Valuable Player.
1962 UB recognized as "Major" by the NCAA. Team goes 6-3.
1963 UB becomes part of the SUNY system; squad finishes 5-3-1. Defensive tackle Gerry Philbin became first modern Bull to be named All-East and played in the North-South and Coaches All-America post-season games before being drafted by the New York Jets where he was an All-AFL selection and played on the 1969 World Champion team.
1964 Team goes 4-4-1; game at Boston University is televised nationally.
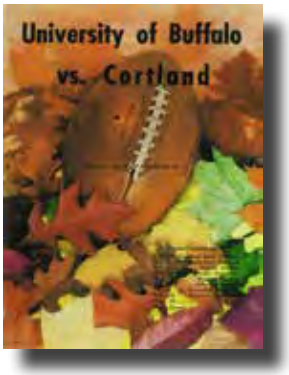
1968 Team goes 7-3, ranked 9th in Lambert Cup voting.
1969 Bob Deming, a 10-year assistant under Offenhamer, becomes head coach. Squad goes 6-3.
1970 Buffalo's last season in "Big Time" football for over 20 years. ABC refuses to show UB Marching Band's halftime protest of the Vietnam War on its coverage of the UB-Holy Cross game.
1971 Financial problems forced the school to drop the program in January.
1977 The program is reinstated at the Division III level with student, alumni and faculty support; squad goes 0-3-1 under new coach Bill Dando.
1983 UB earns an 8-2 record, its best since 1959. Quarterback Marty Barrett is named Upstate NY Player of the Year.
1986 In one of the most successful campaigns in the program's history, the Bulls post a 9-2 record. Bulls ranked as high as No. 15 in national polls.
1990 Sam Sanders replaces Dando who leaves as UB's all-time winningest coach. Team goes 2-8.
1992 Sanders forced to retire due to medical reasons. Offensive coordinator Jim Ward named head coach. Schedule upgrade continues, featuring a number of Division I-AA opponents. Team posts a 4-6 record, and set seven offensive records, including most points in a season (319).
1993 Bulls return to Division I for the first time in over 20 years. 14,179 fans witness season opener in New UB Stadium.
1995 In January, the University names UB alum Craig Cirbus ('80) as their 21st head coach. Later that summer, Director of Athletics Nelson Townsend announces that UB will be moving to Division I-A football in the Mid-American Conference in 1999.
1996 The Bulls finish the regular season 8-3, the most wins against a Division I schedule since 1959. The Bulls are ranked in the Top 25 as a Division I program for the first time in school history on Nov. 18. Head coach Craig Cirbus is named the Division I-AA Independent Coach of the Year. Ed Ellis (fourth round to New England Patriots) becomes the first Bull in modern Division I era to be drafted.
1998 UB surpasses NCAA mandated attendance count by averaging nearly 20,000 fans per game to gain admission to Division I-A football and the Mid-American Conference.
1999 The Bulls join the MAC and begin play in the newly-expanded 31,000-seat UB Stadium, bringing I-A football to WNY. All-time leading receiver Drew Haddad selected in seventh round by Buffalo Bills.



2000 Buffalo posts its first victory over a Division I-A opponent since 1970 when the Bulls score a dramatic 20-17 come-from-behind win over MAC rival Bowling Green on Sept. 23, 2000. After the season, Athletic Director Bob Arkeilpane appoints Jim Hofher (Cornell, '79) as the 22nd head coach in UB football history.

2001 The Bulls score one of the historic wins in school history with a 26-19 win at Army one week after posting their first Mid-American Conference shutout with a 44-0 win over Ohio.

2002 Buffalo earns its first-ever victory over a Bowl Championship Series (BCS) team when it posts a shocking 34-11 win at Rutgers of the Big East.

2005 The Bulls win at Kent State, 10-6, for their first Mid-American Conference road victory. Following the season, Athletic Director Warde Manuel appoints Turner Gill as the 23rd head coach in UB football history.

2006 New head coach Turner Gill led the Bulls to a 2-10 record with wins over Temple and division-leading Kent State. The Bulls scored the most points in a season (220) since moving to Division I-A. Buffalo also scored the most points (201) of any team in the MAC East Division.

2007 UB had is best season since returning to Division I-A by finishing the season 5-7 overall and 5-3 in the MAC for a share of the MAC East Division regular season title. Turner Gill was named MAC Coach of the Year. A UB record eight players were named All-MAC, including James Starks who became the Bulls first 1,000-yard rusher in the I-A era with 1,103 yards.

2008 Bulls have most successful season in Division I history. Finish the year 8-6, win the MAC Championship and play Connecticut in the International Bowl for first bowl appearence in school history. Quarterback Drew Willy finishes career by breaking nearly every school passing record. Only a junior, James Starks breaks the school record for career rushing with 3,142 yards. Naaman Roosevelt records 104 catches on the season - one shy of the Mid-American Conference record.

2009 The Bulls finished 5-7 and featured an offense that averaged 405 yards per game - the highest average in UB's Division I-A era. Naaman Roosevelt set the school record for career receptions (268) and receiving yards (3,551). Davonte Shannon became the first UB player to be a three-time All-MAC First Team selection. Following the season, Athletic Director Warde Manuel appoints Jeff Quinn as the 24th head coach in UB football history.

2010 New head coach Jeff Quinn leads the Bulls to a 2-10 record. Davonte Shannon broke the school record for career tackles with 461 en route to being named to the All-MAC First Team for the fourth straight year. Josh Thomas selected by the Dallas Cowboys in the fifth round of the NFL Draft.

2011 Branden Oliver rushed for a school-record 1,395 yards on the season. Khalil Mack ranked third in the nation in tackles for loss with 20.5. Both players earned first-team All-MAC honors.

2012 The Bulls finished the season strong by winning three of the final four games and went 4-8 overall. Steven Means was selected by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the fifth round of the NFL Draft.

2013 UB went 8-5 and played San Diego State in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl for just its second ever bowl game. Running back Branden Oliver broke both the single season (1,535) and career (4,049) rushing records. Record seven Bulls were named All-MAC, including five to the First Team. Linebacker Khalil Mack earned All-American honors and was selected fifth overall by the Oakland Raiders in the NFL, becoming UB's highest ever NFL draft pick.

2014 In a season in which the Bulls went 5-6, Anthone Taylor rushed for 1,403 yards - the second best single-season effort in school history. Joe Licata broke the single season (29) and career (60) passing touchdown school record. Kristjan Sokoli was selected in the 5th round of the NFL Draft by the Seahawks. Following the season, Athletic Director Danny White named Lance Leipold the 25th head coach in program history.

2015 Under first year head coach Lance Leipold, the Bulls finished 5-7. It was the most wins by a first-year head coach since Bob Deming won six games in 1969. Joe Licata finished his career holding numerous passing records, including career passing yards (9,485) and passing touchdowns (76). Matt Weiser was named an Academic All-American after shattering the single-season school record for receptions (63) and receiving yards (625) by a tight end.

2016 Jordan Johnson rushed for a school-record 282 yards in a win over Akron. Mason Schreck had 651 receiving yards - the most ever by a tight end in school history. Schreck was selected in the 7th round of the NFL Draft by the Cincinnati Bengals.

2017 UB went 6-6 and earned bowl eligibility for just the third time in school history. Anthony Johnson ranked second in the nation in receiving, averaging 113 yards per game and scored a school-record 14 touchdowns. Linebacker Khalil Hodge ranked second in the nation in tackles with 154 - a school record in the Bulls' FBS era.

2018 The Bulls won a school-record 10 games, finishing with a 10-4 record. They won the MAC East Division and earned a spot in the MAC title game for the second time in school history - losing to Northern Illinois, 30-29. UB played Troy in the Dollar General Bowl, the team's third bowl appearance in program history. Quarterback Tyree Jackson was named MAC Offensive Player of the Year and running back Jaret Patterson was named MAC Freshman of the Year.

A DIFFERENT TIME IN A DIFFERENT WORLD

Looking back at one of the most influential football teams in University history 50 years later

By Alex Rubin and Stephen Marth

"Picture Buffalo as it is today…and then forget about all of the suburbs - they weren't there. The nightlife downtown, you had a big nightclub called the Town Casino, you had all of these theaters downtown, it was just so different than what exists today that you can't even imagine."

Stanley Kowalski, left guard for the 1958 Bulls football team, said the above reminiscing about his memories of the city of Buffalo. While this image of Buffalo remains dear to him, another issue clouds his memories – the scandal of the 1958 Tangerine Bowl.

The 1958 football season at the University at Buffalo was one of extreme highs and even more extreme lows; marked by an appearance on the Ed Sullivan show after an 8-1 season, sullied by racism and segregation.

After finishing the season as the Lambert Cup champions, Buffalo was invited to play in the Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, FL. However, after accepting the invitation, University Chancellor Clifford Furnas, along with the entire team, made the decision to not play in the game; they learned that their two black players, Willie Evans and Mike Wilson, would not be allowed to play as per the request of the hosting school district.

In a statement made about his decision, Furnas said, "They are two of our finest young men, and have greatly contributed to our fine showing this season. The possibility of discrimination against any member of the team prevents our appearance at the game."

Being a member of the football team made Evans, the star running back for the team, a hot commodity around campus. The fact that he was one of very few minorities on campus made it tough for him at times.

"It was subtle. I didn't have the luxury of cutting class, because having made a little name for myself in athletics, professors knew who I was. Not to mention, I was usually the only black person in the class," Evans said.

One reason Kowalski believes there was not blatant racism within the team was that several players grew up without having relationships with minorities. Since there was no history of racism in their background, Kowalski believes it allowed the players to come in with open minds towards both Wilson and Evans.

"I grew up in a small mill town in Pennsylvania… we didn't have any blacks living there, so you didn't have prejudice built up ingrained in your head by your parents or your uncles," Kowalski said.

In the first game of the season, the Bulls were to face Harvard, one of the most respected teams in the nation at the time. Evans remembers this win being the first sign that the team could do something special.

"If you went back the year before, we were 5-4. I can remember vividly our coach saying before our last game versus Temple, he wanted us to win our last game so we could go in to the next season with a win, when we played Harvard," Evans said. "[Beating Harvard] got us off to a good start – it was a different feeling. We had no notion of winning the Lambert Cup, we didn't even know about it. We just wanted to win football games."

According to Kowalski, the Bulls were in a unique position due to the fact that they were the only team in or near Buffalo. This gathered media attention.

"Most of the teams that played football after the Second World War had already dropped it," Kowalski said. "We were the only game in town and the papers started to give us all kinds of press, which was kind of unique."

"It was a big deal for Buffalo at the time," Evans concurred. "Blacks weren't included in the paper at all for any reason, yet we were on the front page. When we were coming back from Harvard, the pilot told us that there were a couple thousand students waiting for us at the airport. It was great support."

It was not a coincidence that the Bulls were peaking in 1958; the senior class was the first class to play all four years on scholarship, meaning the team was as cohesive as ever and also had as much talent as possible. While Kowalski understands that football has changed immensely in the past 50 years, he is proud of the accomplishments the team made, and how they stuck together in the face of adversity that followed the end of the regular season.

"We stand very high, simply because of the celebrity that was given to us, that opportunity that we had to make a mark…we were the first team to go into the UB Hall of Fame," Kowalski said. "Obviously the whole game of football has changed so dramatically…we couldn't compare to the teams that are put on the field today, but at that time, we were a very respectable team."

In the final game of the regular season, the Bulls defeated Bucknell 38-0 to earn their first Lambert Cup. This game was especially important for Kowalski, who played in front of friends, family and his old high school football coach. Kowalski did not disappoint, returning an interception for a touchdown en route to Buffalo's victory.

After the victory, Buffalo's co-captains Nicholas Bottini and Louis Reale appeared on the Ed Sullivan show to accept the Lambert Cup, a trophy for the top team of the "Eastern Small Colleges."

"They are two of our finest young men, and have greatly contributed to our fine showing this season. The possibility of discrimination against any member of the team prevents our appearance at the game."

Willie Evans averaged 7.6 yards per carry for 530 yards in 1958

Along with the victory came an invite to the Tangerine Bowl. When news broke about the Bulls being invited to their first bowl game, the team was skeptical, as it would have meant missing a week of classes and work. Several players on the team were married and needed to continue to work to support their family. After much debate however, the team decided to accept the invite.

The decision was quickly changed when Buffalo was informed that if the team was to play, they would have to do so without Evans or Wilson, who were both black.

"Our initial feelings were good. We never even thought about playing in a bowl game. The issue of race didn't even come up in the beginning," Evans said. "The only thing I recall is the first meeting we had where we decided we wanted to go as a team. I found out (about the racism issue) as I walked out of the house after Thanksgiving, and a neighbor said to me 'I guess they don't want you black boys down there…' I got the newspaper and there was my picture on the front page of the Courier Express with Mike Wilson, outlining the position Chancellor Furnas took on the issue, where if myself and Mike couldn't play, UB would not take part in the contest."

The field that had been rented for the game belonged to an Orlando school district that had a strict rule that blacks and whites could not play on the field at the same time, the team discovered. In response, the Bulls held a second meeting where they decided not to play in the game if Evans and Wilson would not be allowed to play. While the Elks Club, the sponsor of the game, offered to find another field, Chancellor Furnas was the man charged with making the ultimate decision.

"Chancellor Furnas was a prominent individual… his credentials were impeccable," Kowalski said. "He was a physicist. He was an Olympic sprinter. He was the assistant secretary of defense for research and development in the Eisenhower administration… there wasn't anybody capable of criticizing him. The way he put it was he would not demean any of his players, or even present an opportunity for anyone to be uncomfortable in the Florida setting."

As the image of Buffalo's first bowl came and went, Evans carried the experience of racism with him after college. It followed him to the professional level, as he entered the American Football League. Evans had never visited any of the southern states.

"I had a chip on my shoulder from the experience. It was a matter of letting it beat you down or not. I saw it as an opportunity to show my athleticism. I eventually was drafted by the Buffalo Bills, which was also an experience. It was my first time playing with white ball players from the South. There were players I never spoke to, and they never spoke to me, yet we were 'teammates.' That hardened my attitude about the idea of racism. Our coach was from the South, and I didn't appreciate being called 'boy.' He called everybody 'boy.' I ended up getting released right before the season began, but I wasn't too upset about it."

Since his playing days, Evans has remained active in the University community, holding several positions on the Alumni board and serving on the committees that brought both Athletic Director Warde Manuel and President Simpson to Buffalo.

"One reason why I'm still with the university is the way things have come," Evans said. "Diversity is something that has caught on with the campus. We're not there yet, but it has improved significantly since I was here. There are expectations that exist now that were not around when I was a student."

Discrimination Is Issue

UB Turns Down Bid To Tangerine Bowl

By RAY RYAN

The University of Buffalo, unswervingly loyal to two of its players, last night turned down an invitation to play its first bowl football game—the Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, Fla., on Dec. 27.

The issue was discrimination. Two of Buffalo's players are Negroes. Willie Evans, a left halfback, led the Bulls in rushing yardage during their highly successful 8-1 season. Mike Wilson is a reserve end.

The fault did not lie with the Tangerine Bowl committee or its chairman, Jack Morgan, or the Orlando Elks Club, which promotes the game for the benefit of crippled children.

The committee tendered the bid on Monday, Nov. 24, with the full knowledge that Buffalo has two Negro players. Subsequently, the committee approached the Orlando High School Athletic Assn., which controls the stadium which is the site of the game, with a request it be allowed to rent the stadium.

At the same time, the committee requested that the Athletic Assn. waive a clause in the standard contract which stipulates there be no intermingling of the races in athletic contests in the stadium. This request was refused.

The Tangerine Bowl committee voted—104 to 4—in favor of Buffalo coming to Orlando, even in view of this development. These men wanted to see Buffalo play football.

But the only other possible playing site in Orlando is a practice field around which 3,000 or 4,000 bleacher seats could be installed.

Morgan said that, if Buffalo desired to make the trip, the Elks would guarantee there would be no discrimination. Although the Elks undoubtedly would take a tremendous financial loss (the Tangerine Bowl seats 13,500), they stood ready to live up to every financial term contained in the bid to the Buffalo athletic director, Jim Peelle, last Monday.

Dr. Clifford C. Furnas, chancellor of the University of Buffalo, was informed of the Orlando High School Athletic
